Pikes Peak Rangerettes Update

The Rangerettes are continuing preparations for the final performance of our season: the National Western Stock Show on January 17th. With a brand new drill designed by Assistant Drillmaster Heather Harding, Stock Show promises to be one of the Rangerette's best performances yet. The girls have been practicing frequently to perfect the brand new maneuvers and techniques in the drill. Though it is proving to be challenging, our team and horses are working extra hard and the end result should be fantastic.

Their next practice will be at 6 P.M. at Latigo on January 6th, and January 12th at 2 P.M.!
