

6

ways YOU can be involved in the Yaqan Nuki Peoples' Heritage Society

1 Become a member contact Janine Basil - Director through email jbasilyaqannuki@gmail.com or phone 250-428-2977 to gain more information. You can always stop by for a chat as well, our main office is located in Legend Logos - Hwy 21

2 Facilitate a Workshop

Join our team to bring together a workshop that showcases a talent or skill. We encourage anyone who would like to teach or guide others in activities like beading, sewing, harvesting, hunting, ktunaxa sign language, cradleboards, sturgeon nose canoes, regalia making, language classes. Janine can help you find a format that suits your teaching style with those who want to learn.

3 Fundraising

We are a non-profit society. This means we need to raise funds to run our programs and offer activities and events for our members. We need assistance with grant writing, fundraising events, donor thank you's.

4 Program Planning

- Language Revitalization
- Annual Culture Camp
- kqa·ckił - All Walk Walking Trail
- Community Workshops
- Awareness programs
- Collaborations with various organizations
- FUTURE PROJECTS: do you have an idea that would illustrate yaqan nuki culture or traditions or history?

5 Artifacts and History

Are you interested in history? Would you like to learn more about yaqan nuki history? We are always on the hunt for pictures, objects or personal stories that help paint the picture of our ancestors and people who have passed.

- Archives with local objects and artifacts
- Cassette, video, and digital recordings of elders' and other community members' teachings
- historical pictures

6 Volunteer
