When playing in any Cue Sport International/BCAPL sanctioned State or National event THERE IS NO COACHING OR TIME OUTS PERMITTED.

For Brooklyn BCA Pool Leagues: There is only 1 coaching allowed per game. Your turn at the table starts when your opponent misses, fouls, or the balls stop rolling. Only the player may call for a Timeout. If the player calls for the timeout, her/she may choose to receive instructions from any other teammate. The captain may designate different teammate to coach, however, only 1 player is allowed to go to the table as a coach. The coach MAY touch, adjust or hold the player's cue without a foul. If player has ball in hand, the coach may place, replace or move the cue ball as often as necessary while giving instructions.

For USA Pool Leagues: There are 3 time outs per match, and only 1 time out permitted per game. Your turn at the table starts when your opponent misses, fouls, or the balls stop rolling. If the captain calls for the timeout, he/she may give the instructions, or may delegate another teammate, however, only 1 player is allowed to go to the table as a coach. The coach MAY touch, adjust or hold the player's cue without a foul. If the player has Ball in hand, the coach may place, replace or move the cue ball as often as necessary while giving instructions

For both the BCA Pool Leagues and the USA Pool League:

When it is your opponent's turn at the table you may talk to anyone about any aspect of the game. When matches are in progress, talking in and around the immediate playing area should be kept to a minimal. The BCAPL and the USAPL are multi-cultural and multi-linguistic leagues. So out of respect for the other mono-linguistic players in the league, and to prevent the appearance of violating said rule, Players should refrain from speaking any language other than English within earshot of the players at the table. Failing to adhere to said rule may result in penalties ranging from a Ball in Hand foul up to and including expulsion from the league.

The League Operator, and or League Manager, reserves the right to manually adjust any player's rating at any time if sandbagging is suspected. League Operator is not required to notify or warn said player, or his/her team captain that they are suspected of sandbagging. Repeated offenses WILL result in suspension or expulsion from the league and registration of said action to Cue Sport International.
