

10th Annual Los Angeles Collegiate League - Summer 2026

Season begins- June 3rd

Season ends - July 31st

16- 18 game schedule (9 inning games)

Format one weekday game and one weekend game

Wood Bats

College Baseball In California

The Los Angeles Collegiate League has been one of the top collegiate leagues in Southern California for a decade. Players from all over the country come together and play in a structured league in June and July. Our small roster gives each player maximum at bats and innings at their desired position. Over the last decade hundreds of NCAA Division I, II, III, NAIA and JUCO players have developed in this summer collegiate league.