

Bowing to the High Command

---

The article "Bowing to the high Command" (September 22) was only aimed at criticizing the BJP governments. It is natural that the BJP national leaders take interest in the activities of the state governments under its rule, but this does not imply that the state chief ministers have to kow-tow to the national leaders before taking the decisions.

---

13th Oct 1991      Indian Express      Bowing to the High Command.