Contract for Ghost Writing

This Contract is entered into as of this day of _____ by and between Dr. C. White-Elliott doing business as CLF Publishing, LLC, a business established in California (hereafter known as the Publisher), and _____, a resident of California (hereafter known as the Authors), concerning a book presently known as _____ (hereafter referred to as the Work).

This contract for Ghost Writing will work in conjunction with the contract for publishing.

Ghost Writing is agreed upon as the anonymous writing of a book by CLF Publishing for the Authors, on the Authors' behalf. CLF Publishing will compose a manuscript for the purpose of publishing in book format as dictated and discussed with the Authors.

The fee for Ghost Writing begins at $3500 and has the following limitations: to not exceed 100 pages (in book format), to be completed as outlined and agreed upon by the Publisher and Authors (referring to chapter outline, writing, and reviewing), ISBN assignment, cover design (to not exceed $100), and printer submission fee.

After the manuscript has been published, the Ghost Writer will not require any portion of the royalties or any future form of payment. The company name will only appear on the back cover of the Work, as all published materials are. The Authors will receive sole credit for the Work.

Payment schedule: Payment can be made as a one-time initial payment of $3500 and the client will be billed for additional fees (if and when the page limit or cover design limits have been exceeded). Or, the $3500 payment can be split in five payments of $700, to be paid over a five-month span.

At the completion of all payments, book will move from the writing stage to publication.
