GAMES TO WATCH!

WEEK 2

MANDEVILLE AT MADISON PREP

9/12/25 @ 7PM

Mandeville travels to Baton Rouge on Friday to face a really good Madison Prep team. The Chargers went on the road last week and beat Dutchtown 49-41 in an offensive explosion. It was led by junior quarterback, Landon Johnson, who threw for 214 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for another 108 yards and a touchdown. Overall, the Charges rushed for 335 yards. The Skippers had their own offensive outburst on Friday night against Salmen. Senior quarterback, Ben Hendricks exploded for 200 yards on the ground and 111 in the air. Freshman quarterback, Krew Collura came in late after Hendricks went down with an injury to throw for 50 yards and also ran for 22. Mandeville junior wide receiver, Jake Jacketti showed how electric he is catching six balls for 97 yards and a touchdown.

What to Watch: There is a good chance that quarterback Ben Hendricks is out. Can freshman, Krew Collura manage the offense? He is a talented young man, but he is a freshman. I am sure Coach Jones will have a game plan for him to manage.

GAMES TO WATCH! WEEK 2

BROTHER MARTIN AT ST. PAULS

9/12/25 @ 7PM

The Wolves are coming off an impressive win at Live Oak on Friday. The preseason scrimmage and jamboree against John Curtis and Rummel seemed to pay off! Junior quarterback, Brady Pierson was efficient completing 7/10 passes for 153 yards and three touchdowns. It helped that the running game was back on track. Senior running back, Cody Corales ran for 154 yards and two touchdowns on only 15 carries. While the Brother Martin defense will give them a better look this week, keep an eye on the Wolves defense against the Crusaders. The Crusaders offense is led by one of the best players in the country in five-star wide receiver, Easton Royal. He amassed over 130 yards last week. They will get him the ball in the air and on the ground. The Wolves have talent in the secondary, but they are young at the corners and will need to be ready.

What to Watch: Easton Royal..... He is dynamic. Not only is he a weapon on offense, he's already returned multiple kicks for touchdowns during the preseason. St. Pauls will likely try to keep the ball out of his hands on special teams.

GAMES TO WATCH! WEEK 2

STA AT LORANGER

9/12/25 @ 7PM

St. Thomas Aquinas travels to Loranger on Friday. Last week, it was a tail of two halves for the Falcons. After trailing Pine, 23-0 at half, they played well in the second half scoring and giving up 14 points. That will be something they can hand their hat on under new head coach, Boomer Nunez. For the Wolves, it was an impressive outing against former coach, Sam Messina and his Independence Tigers. New Loranger head coach, Chris Powell recorded his first win at the helm with a 47-19 victory. To no surprise, the Wolves were led by junior running back, Rylan James. James ran for 200 yards and four touchdowns and was close to having another touchdown receiving. It will be important this week for St. Thomas Aquinas to keep James to a limited amount of yards, but the Wolves are capable of throwing it as well.

What to Watch: Rylan James is one of the best running backs around. The STA defense will need to limit his yards. Watch for Loranger to throw the ball if the Falcons stack the box. They are more than capable of making teams pay for that.

GAMES TO WATCH! WEEK 2

NCS AT EPISCOPAL BR
9/11/25 @ 7PM

In a battle of two really good, 0-1 teams, Northlake Christian travels to face Episcopal of Baton Rouge on Thursday. Episcopal is coming off a 20 point loss at home to St. Michaels while the Wolverines lost a rivalry game on the road to Hannan 14-13. The Wolverines proved they could run the ball with Kameron Casnave, who had 128 yards rushing and Jordan Willis, who added 41 on the ground and a touchdown. They ran into trouble when they had to throw it, only completing five passes on the night. It will be important for them to be two dimensional this week. On defense, they face a talented wing-t offense on a short week. That is a recipe that most coaches dont like. But Coach Willis and staff have experience against Episcopal and the wing-t. The defense will need to make stops and allow the offense to grind it out on the ground.

What to Watch: The wing-t is hard to defend, especially on a short week. Can the Wolverines defense play smart assignment football and keep the Knights from getting chunk plays?

GAMES TO WATCH!

WEEK 2

PEARL RIVER AT SOUTH LAFOURCHE

9/12/25 @ 7PM

Coach Leonard and crew went on the road last week and dominated on the ground. If you know Coach Leonard, he is as tough as they come and it translated to the ground game. Senior running back, Gage Durand ran for 159 yards and three touchdowns on 25 carries while quarterback, Brayden Hutchinson added 177 yards on the ground on only 13 carries. If the recipe for the win was to run the ball, the Rebels did that. This week, they travel to face a bigger South Lafourche team that lost to Thibodaux last week, 21-14. The Tarpons have some talent led by head coach, BJ Young. Their defense only gave up one touchdown with the other two coming on a trick play and an interception. Coach Young came away impressed with his defense. The Tarpons moved the ball well on offense but bogged down in the red zone.

What to Watch: The Tarpons defense played well against Thibodaux, but the Rebels bring a different style and running attack. Its not easy to go get a win on the bayou, but if the Rebels run the ball like they did last week, it will help.

QB Brayden Hutchinson

GAMES TO WATCH!

WEEK 2

SALMEN AT EAST ASCENSION

9/12/25 @ 7PM

Salmen travels to East Ascension on Friday. They are coming off a tough road loss at Mandeville, where they led late in the 3rd quarter. But there won't be any morale victories for coach Chuter, he's done this for too long. This week is another tough matchup. East Ascension lost a close one last week to really talented Brother Martin team. The Spartans led 22-9 at halftime before giving up 20 unanswered points in the second half. For the Spartans, there is no secret that the offense will go as the running game and Jimmy Chanzy goes. He ran for 158 yards and two touchdowns last week. Junior quarterback, Da'John Howard had his ups and downs throwing for 178 yards and adding 61 on the ground in his first start. With the tools and talent he has, you will see him progress as the season goes on.

What to Watch: The Spartans gave up 222 yards on the ground to quarterbacks last week. I'm sure the Spartans will try to expose that and the Spartans will work all week on correcting it. The Spartans defense is talented, so expect them to improve from last week.

GAMES TO WATCH!

WEEK 2

PONCHATOULA AT DUTCHTOWN

9/12/25 @ 7PM

The Green Wave are coming off a close loss against Walker last week. A slow start had them down 13-0 at halftime, but Coach Walters has to be pleased with what he saw out of his young team in the second half. Sophomore quarterback, Will Walker and wide receiver Jayden Walker hooked up three times for 142 yards and two touchdowns. Will Walker also had a good game on the ground. Sophomore quarterback, Jackson Aucoin also got snaps and ran the ball well. Dutchtown is coming off a 49-41 loss to a really talented Madison Prep team, who plays Mandeville this week. The Griffins couldn't stop the talented Madison Prep offense, but their offense showed they could put up points. If the Green Wave can be consistent on offense, this should be a really good game.

What to Watch: The Griffins scored a lot last week against Madison Prep. Can the Green Wave defense slow them down? On offense, Will Walker was dynamic. Look for him and Jackson Aucoin to continue to lead them. They are two very talented sophomores.

WEEK 2

MADISON AT FONTAINEBLEAU

9/12/25 @ 7PM

Fontainebleau had a rough week last week against Lakeshore. But Coach Kavanaugh and crew have some players back and not playing the Titans will certainly help. They primarily ran the ball last week but couldn't garner much offense. Running Back Sheldon Asmore had a good game on limited carries. Look for quarterback Logan Astague to put the ball in the air a bit more this week. He has a good arm and can make all of the throws. It will be important for them push the ball down the field to open up the running game. The Madison Jaguars are coming off a close win against Ringgold, but the Bulldogs will be a step up in competition. The Bulldogs won this game 31-0 last season, so its a familiar opponent, and one they have had success against.

What to Watch: The Bulldogs are in a good spot here in week 2. For Coach Kavanaugh, I am sure he wants to focus on the little things. It will be important for them to get some rhythm on offense, stay ahead of the chains and limit penalties and turnovers.

Fontainebleau
QB Logan Astague
