

All Things Wisconsin One-Page Wisconsin-Themed Exhibits – Instructions

In celebration of 75 years of organized topical collecting, ATA #5 (Milwaukee Chapter), is challenging the philatelic community to create one-page non-competitive exhibits related to any aspect of Wisconsin.

- These one-page exhibits should be Wisconsin themed, are non-competitive
- Participation is open to all at no charge.
- Exhibits must be submitted by December 31, 2024
- Cash prizes of $75, $50, and $25 will be awarded in a random drawing to take place in January.
- Exhibited materials must be the property of the exhibitor.
- Exhibitor grants Milcopex the full rights to present and share the material shown on the Milcopex website. Printed copies of the exhibit will be on public display at the exhibition.
- Exhibits must be submitted using the official online form.
- No more than 3 exhibits may be submitted by the same exhibitor.
- Exhibits must be submitted electronically in PDF or jpeg format. 300 dpi resolution or greater is preferred.
- Exhibits should be in 8 ½ x 11-inch page format or A4 page format (21 x 29 cm.).
- Each exhibit is limited to a single page.
- Milcopex reserves the right of acceptance, and their decision shall be final.

Format & Content Requirements

- A title for the exhibit should appear at the top of the page.
- The exhibitor may show their name(s) on the exhibit page if they wish.
- The exhibitor's email address on the exhibit is optional but is encouraged to promote discourse with viewers.
- The exhibit must include at least one philatelic item.
- For layout and content ideas please see: <https://ataexhibits.com/exhibit-gallery/>

Optional Format & Content Features

- Exhibits may be in portrait or landscape format.
- There are no restrictions on page margins.
- Exhibits may be constructed from scanned images electronically assembled, from a scan of a completed exhibit page, or a combination of the two.
- Cropping of images is permitted.
- Not all items in an exhibit must be philatelic.
- Web links may be included to direct viewers to additional relevant content.

Last Day to Submit an Entry: December 31, 2024
