

1 MS. HEINEMEYER: I believe since you have
2 filed this petition, the 1998 Muscogee County
3 conviction was vacated and so right now you are 4 awaiting a new trial on the 1998 conviction and 5 back in the fall you were re-released on parole,
6 they had a final parole revocation hearing at which 7 time they revoked you for violating your parole by 8 committing these charges; is that correct?

9 MR. WELDON: That's what it seems like 10 but what I'm trying to say, I've been prejudiced by 11 them releasing me and re-arresting me on these same
12 charges because they gave me an immediate release.
13 My brother told me the Parole Board said since it
14 took two years, they were supposed to took me back
15 to court, my case got overturned in 2000, December 16 of 2000, and they were supposed to take me back to 17 court right then and they never did do it.

18 THE COURT: What kind of charge was 19 that?

20 MR. WELDON: Sale of cocaine. And 21 they gave me sale of cocaine and resisting ---

22 THE COURT: They gave you a new 23 trial?

24 MR. WELDON: They were supposed to 25 have had, but like I say ---
