

Two Original Plays Designed Especially for Students of English as a New Language

Roald Dahl's short stories

The Landlady and Lamb to the Slaughter

Directed by Barbara Bregstein

The Landlady

A tale about a young man named Billy Weaver who rents a cozy room for a night.

Lamb to the Slaughter

Mary Maloney commits a shocking crime and tries to cover it up in a very unusual way.

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

Students participate after each scene by interacting with the presenter's questions.

Students can have the scene repeated if they want to see it again.

In post-performance discussion the audience speaks directly to the characters.
