To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Shoshana Averbach, LMSW, MA, whose website is www.authenticradiance.life since 1997 as her Rabbi, teacher and advisor. Her practice as an energy healing practitioner is in accordance with Torah and halachic guidelines. Some of the modalities which she practices include the Emotion Code, Body Code, Belief Code, Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT), Tapas Acupressure Technique (TAT), and Remote Spirit Release. She also practices general energy healing and provides intuitive readings for clients. She is currently a student practitioner of Moodtek, a kosher energy healing program under the haskama of Rabbi Raphael Szmerna.

Shoshana hosts a podcast called Love, Light, and Wisdom, which discusses energy healing, personal growth, and transformation. I was a guest speaker on her show, so I know that she presents herself professionally, with wisdom, insight, and clarity.

She holds degrees and licenses in social work and music therapy. She has worked in those fields as a professional with high standards for many years.

From my personal experience, I am certain that whichever services she provides will be of the highest professional quality, with integrity, and in accordance with Torah and halacha.

Sincerely,
