A lyrical stroll down memory lane

After 10 years of assembling 20 film history presentations and a two-part, three-hour "American History and Today" show, we're putting a bow on our labor of love and presenting our best work in two "Heart and Soul" shows, hosted in-person by producer/presenter John LeGear.

Heart and Soul: Music's Role in Cinema (part 1 of 2) features memorable songs and dances that have been selected from more than 500 captured and remixed for our original history series.

Please join us to relive some of the happiest songs and dances in the history of film. It'll touch your heart and have you tapping your toes all the way home.
