Showcasing 'Movie Music'

Programming managers at public libraries and senior community centers are invited to present this free, automated 95-minute show. Twenty-eight of our favorite film compilations from some of the finest movies ever made are featured in this showing of "Sensational Songs Showcase."

You'll find the show on YouTube by searching "John LeGear playlist" or here by clicking available for free.

For those with a monthly YouTube subscription, this show will play automatically for 95 minutes commercial free (without pop-up ads) when you choose "PLAY ALL." For those without a YouTube subscription, you'll encounter online ads between some selections, which can be skipped manually after six seconds if you'd like. Anyone without a monthly YouTube subscription who'd like to feature this presentation without pop-up ads might wish to consider the "first month free" subscription offer from YouTube. The monthly subscription thereafter is $13.99. Just a suggestion. We're not working for YouTube, although we appreciate their service.

To schedule one of our 20 in-person or remote (Zoom) shows with narration by the film editor for a modest fee, please email JohnLeGear@comcast.net
