Showcasing our work...it's free!

Programming managers at public libraries, senior centers, and community colleges are invited to sample our work with your audience for free. Twenty-one of John LeGear's popular film compilations are featured in this online presentation of "Movie Music Memories" showcase. You'll find it on YouTube by clicking available for free.

For those with a monthly YouTube subscription, this show will play automatically for 78 minutes commercial free (without pop-up ads) when you choose "PLAY ALL." For those without a YouTube subscription, you'll encounter pop-up ads between some selections during the show, which you can skip manually after six seconds if you'd like.

Programmers without a YouTube subscription who'd like to share this presentation without pop-up ads might want to consider the "first month free" subscription offer from YouTube. The monthly subscription thereafter is $13.99. Just a suggestion. We're not working on behalf of YouTube.
