A film history presentation by John LeGear from TimComm.com in suburban Chicago

Timeless Movie Music Moments is the culmination of nine years since the summer of 2016 dedicated to putting a century of song and dance at the movies in perspective. Producer/presenter John LeGear wasn't governed by "best of" or "Top 50" lists...he simply selected the best of what he experienced at movie theaters and in the comfort of his own home since growing up in Chicago during the 1950s and 60s.

As with all his presentations, LeGear takes you on a guided tour of scenes and songs made possible by the greatest composers, lyricists, directors and performers in film history. This briskly paced 85-minute "docu-musical," the 15th full-length film history presentation in LeGear's library, once again features his percussive film-editing style that grabs and holds your attention from start to finish. Please join us for this uplifting showcase of happy warriors and sit back to enjoy the greatest art form ever created...the movies.
