Shibori Silk Scarf Experience with Lana Hall

Discover the beauty of Shibori - a traditional Japanese resist-dyeing technique that transforms silk into flowing patterns of color and movement.

This workshop is designed to be relaxing, accessible, and deeply satisfying for beginners and experienced creatives alike. No prior art experience is needed.

Create your own hand-dyed silk scarf using the timeless art of Shibori.

In this guided textile workshop, participants will explore folding, wrapping, stitching, and resist techniques to produce flowing patterns and organic designs on luxurious silk. Using professional silk pigments and thoughtfully chosen color palettes, each scarf becomes a completely unique wearable artwork.

No experience necessary. All materials included.

Participants leave with a finished silk scarf and the experience of creating something beautiful by hand.

Experience Highlights

- Beginner-friendly guided instruction
- Premium silk materials included
- Calm, supportive atmosphere
- Multiple Shibori folding and resist techniques
- Finished wearable artwork to take home
