

Player Release Form

General Guidelines
(YBOA Rules & Regulation 1.11 – 1.11.5)

1. If a player is on a team that is part of a multi-team organization, he/she must have an official YBOA Player Release Form signed by the releasing Organization Director and gaining Head Coach or Organization Director.
2. If a player is on a single team, not part of a multi-team organization, he/she must have an official YBOA Player Release Form signed by the releasing Head Coach or Organization Director and gaining Head Coach or Organization Director.
3. Released and/or transferred players still count against your original roster total as outlined in YBOA Membership guidelines.
4. Once a player transfers from a team, he/she may not return to that team or roster for the remainder of the current season (September 1 – August 31).
