

Jessica Fields, MBA, RRT

Candidate Position: District Rep Atlanta

Question: What is your vision for the GSRC, and how do you see your role in advancing that vision as a member of the Board of Directors?

A: My vision for GSRC is to amplify the voice of respiratory therapists across Georgia through advocacy, education, and professional growth. As a Board member, I'll lead with service fighting for RT recognition, supporting workforce development, and ensuring our profession is represented at every table where decisions are made.

Question: How would you describe your leadership style, and how do you plan to engage and collaborate with fellow board members, committees, and the respiratory care community across GA?

My leadership style is collaborative and service-driven. I will engage Board members, committees, and other respiratory therapists through active listening, clear communication, and shared goals, always advocating for our profession with purpose and respect. I plan to work closely with the Board through consistent communication, strategic alignment, and mutual accountability to advance GSRC's mission and elevate the role of RTs across Georgia.

Question : In your opinion, what unique skills, experiences, or perspectives do you bring to the table as a candidate for office in our organization?

I've been there. I am the people we serve. I love being an RT. I lead with empathy, clarity, and collaboration. My skills in mediation, negotiation, and legal analysis help me build solutions that work. I advocate for children, adults, and RTs on a daily basis and I show up with purpose, precision, and a deep commitment to our profession. I'm a natural connector who brings people together across roles, regions, and perspectives always advocating with empathy, strategy, and a clear vision for collective progress. I embody How Do We Get To Yes!
