

Bounce Back Smart Privacy Policy

Introduction

Bounce Back Smart respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your data.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal information such as name, email address, fitness preferences, injury or recovery details you voluntarily provide, and usage data related to app performance and engagement.

How We Use Your Information

Your information is used to personalize workouts, improve app functionality, communicate updates, process subscriptions, and enhance overall user experience.

Data Sharing

We do not sell personal data. We may share information with trusted service providers (such as payment processors and analytics services) solely to operate and improve the app.

Data Security

We implement industry-standard security measures to protect your personal data from unauthorized access or disclosure.

Health Information Disclaimer

Bounce Back Smart is a fitness and wellness application, not a medical treatment platform. Any health-related information is used solely to personalize workouts and is not a substitute for professional medical advice.

Your Choices

You may update your account information, opt out of marketing communications, or request data deletion by contacting support.

Children's Privacy

Bounce Back Smart does not knowingly collect data from children under 13.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Updates will be posted within the app or website.
