The House

Same one house here in Soufflenheim on the common property street one side, and Barbara Kieffer, other side, and for part Antoni Mössner, upper side the same Barbara Kieffer, down on the common main street, one story house, and protected cattle shed.

This house and cow shed have been built on a garden inherited by the widow during the union from her father deceased, so that the building only can be divided between heirs, as authorized by the guardian and estimated by provost and justice counsellors to: 160 R

On this estimation, the share due to the widow is of: 82 R 8 s 2 d

For a total estimation of : 242 R 8 s 2 d

So that on this the widow must repay to the other heirs a sum of: 93 R

And what is disponible to be divided is: 149 R 8 s 2 d

The third share due to the widow on this is so: 49 R 9 s 4 2/3 d

And to the children comes a third share from their father of: 99 R 8 s 9 1/3 d

So to each of them a half or: 49 R 9 s 4 2/3 d

The share due by the widow to Anna Maria is paid to-day in liquidity or can be considered as debt to be paid, the share due to Frantz Antoni will be put aside until he reaches his 14 years, without interest.
