

Muster Rolls of Napoleon 1802-1815

Registers of the Napoleonic army imperial guard and line infantry from 1802-1815. Each registration contains the name, date and place of birth, and parents of each soldier as well as information on his military background. Found at Geneanet: <https://www.geneanet.org/relevés-collaboratifs/view/38900>

It is an ongoing project, coordinated by Alain Brugeat, to index the entire registres matricules (muster rolls) of the Imperial Guard and infantry of the line during that period. Currently approaching 1,000,000 entries. Each name is linked to its original military ledger registration entry, located online at Mémoire des Hommes.

The Historical Service of Defense (Vincennes) keeps, under series GR 1 to 49 YC, registers of troops from the 17th century through the aftermath of the War of 1870. These registers list, by unit, all the soldiers and junior officers who served during a given period. In 2019, the French Ministry of the Armed Forces digitized 2,460 registers of Ancien Régime troops, which corresponds to 361,880 digital views, found online at Mémoire des Hommes. Ultimately, 2,579 registers of troops from the Ancien Régime will also be available. These registers of the Ancien Régime are added to the 1,191 registers of the period 1802-1815, the registration registers of the consular, imperial and royal guards and of the line infantry.

Registers of the Ancien Régime (1682-1793)

Soufflenheim Soldiers in the Muster Rolls from 1802 to 1815

Translated into English by Google Translate. Transcriptions edited for accuracy. Some names were translated as if they were French words rather than names, so 'Jean' showed up as 'jeans', Pierre as 'rock', Marguerite as 'daisy', Barbe as 'beard'. These have been corrected along with other errors. Soufflenheim spelled as in the original record. Notes by Todd Farmerie.

JOSEPH MISCRET [MESNER]

Son of Joseph Miscret [Mesner] and Marguerite Feilipin [Seile]. Born in Suflelhacheim, Bas-Rhin, November 11, [year incorrect]

36th Line Infantry Regiment, September 24, 1803 - 01/12/1805 (registration numbers 1 to 2,976).

Note: Birthdate only says 1777 (no month, no day). There aren't that many Josephs who were sons of Joseph and Marguerite born in Soufflenheim during this period. The soldier seems to be Joseph Mesner, son of Joseph Mesner and Marguerite Seiler. Seiler becomes Feilepin through a misreading of the feminine form Seilerin. For his own surname, it looks like 'fils Joseph Mesner et de Marguerite' gave rise progressively to Mesneret, Meseret and finally Miscret.

27th Line Infantry Regiment, 1st Vendémiaire Year XII [September 24, 1803] - October 27, 1806 (numbers 1 to 3,000).

Note: There is no baptism for this person in Soufflenheim, but Antoni Messner and Maria Anna Muller had several children, including a Joseph in January 1785, so this October 1784 birth date can't be correct.

FRANCOIS PIA

Geneanet Muster Roll 1802-1815, SHD/ GR 21 YC 659 Image 491, Page 488, Registration No. 9525

Son of Francois Pia and Apprilins Allemand [Lalemant]. Born in Souffenheim, Bas-Rhin, August 4, 1792

85th Line Infantry Regiment, January 21, 1809 - March 14, 1812 (registration numbers 6,600 to 9,599).

Note: Mother's surname in the record is Allemand, which has been mis-translated as German. Her given name has two 'pp's, so Apprilus or Apprilins. This soldier was actually born at Fort Louis, the son of Franciscus (Frantz/Francois) Pia and Apollonia (no surname given in his baptismal record, but she is Apolonia Lalemant in those of siblings).

Note: His Schirrhein marriage record gives a completely different birthdate at Soufflenheim, 6 March 1791 (his baptism falls within the missing gap in the Soufflenheim baptisms, so direct confirmation is not possible).
