ESCHBACH INVENTORY INDEX: 1662-1745

The earliest Eschbach inventory records are found in Haguenau 6E16 bundle 180, 1662-1745. The index to these records, created by Jean-Marie Klipfel, is found in Notariat Ancien De Haguenau (Inventaires) at the Archives of Bas-Rhin. The bottom of each page of the index is missing on the photocopies at the archives. The missing line(s) are in sections referred to as “Notes” or “References”, which often provide additional inventory, will, and marriage contract information. Margaretha, Maria, Catharina, and Barbara Würz were from Eschbach and married men from Soufflenheim according to the 1688 inventory of Georg Würz. Interpretation and translation by Mark Drexler, August 2016.

ESCHBACH INVENTORY INDEX: 1746-1775

The index to the Eschbach inventories, Haguenau 6E16 bundle 181, 1746-1775, was created by Jean-Marie Klipfel. It is found in Notariat Ancien De Haguenau (Inventaires) at the Archives of Bas-Rhin. The bottom of each page of the index is missing on the photocopies at the archives. The missing line(s) are in sections referred to as "Notes" or "References", which often provide additional marriage contract, will, and inventory information. According to the 1768 inventory of Johannes Freyess, Francisca Freyss, wife of Johannes May of Soufflenheim, is from Eschbach. Translation by Mark Drexler, August 2016.

[Todd Farmarie comments: There seems to be something wrong with this inventory. Specifically, the part "Maria Anna Sigler, assisted by her marriage guardian Heinrich Jäckh, burgher in Soufflenheim, grandfather of the three children left after death". Something seems to have been dropped here. The part Maria Anna Sigler, assisted by her marriage guardian Heinrich Jäckh, burgher in Soufflenheim goes together, and 'marriage guardian' refers to Heinrich Jäckh being her husband. We see this by combining the 1750 inventory of Anton Jaeck, naming his wife Anna Pauli, and with a summary that includes the statement: A reference without date is made to the inventory of Maria Anna Sigele, mother of the deceased, and the 1753 inventory of Heinrich Jaeck, where his heirs include the children of his deceased son Anton Jäckh by Anna Pauli. Together, these show Heinrich Jaeck married Maria Anna Sigel. The remainder of the highlighted statement, "grandfather of the three children left after death", cannot, then, refer to Heinrich, who was husband of one of the three heirs.

I did find the 26 February 1691 Surbourg marriage of Johannes Martini Siegel, son of Sebastiani Siegel and Maria Pfolin to Dorothea Reiffsteckin, but also found a baptism from 1669 of Joannes Martin son of Paschasius Siegel and Maria Paali, which only confuses things unless 'Paschasius' is a garbled attempt to render 'Bastian' into Latin, but then a year later there is a Catharina, daughter of Jo'es Paschasius and

Maria Paali, as if Paschasius was the surname. I don't know who was grandfather of the children, but it isn't Heinrich Jaeck, as the current reading might suggest.]
