A GUIDE TO THE BURIAL RECORDS

Soufflenheim burial records, 373 total, are found in three series at the Archives of Bas-Rhin:

- NMD (1783-1792) Series 3E472/2 : 41 records, January to September 1792
- MS 3E472/4 (1788-1791) Series 3E472/4 : 58 records (duplicate set), February to December 1790
- S (1788-1793) Series 3E472/5 : 332 records, 1788-1791 and September 1792 to December 1793

Burial Records Series 3E472/2

Series 3E472/2 contains 41 burial records from January 5, 1792 to September 10, 1792, images 102-115, no introduction or page numbers. The records are signed by Felix Rumpler vicar and Joannes Mockers schoolmaster with the exception of three records from November 1792, image 115, signed by vicar Alexander Ficker and two others, but not Mockers. The three records are also found in 3E472/5 image 50, Alexander Ficker mentioned, signed by vicar Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried, no other signatures, so copies.

Burial Records Series 3E472/4

Series 3E472/4 contains 58 burial records from February 8, 1790 to December 24, 1790, images 10-17, with an introduction in French. The records are signed by either vicar Felix Rumpler or Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried and schoolmaster Joannes Mockers. The records are also found in 3E472/5 images 21-28, signed by the same, so created simultaneously. These are duplicate records only as regards their factual content; they are not duplicate images and therefore provide alternate views of the same records.

Introductory Paragraph:

The present register of Sepultures of the parish of Soufflenheim containing twenty pages has been by us François Georges Louis Rothiacob as bailiff of Neubourg and other places, judge named to the administration of the Justice of the Prefecture of Haguenu, attached, paraphed [flourish after signature], and undersigned in conformity to the declaration of the King of 21 October 1787, today the 23 December 1789. Signed: Rothiacob

Burial Records Series 3E472/5

Series 3E472/5 contains 332 burial records from December 31, 1787 to December 29, 1791 and from September 13, 1792 to December 20, 1793, images 2-62. There are four burial registers: 1788, 1789, 1790 and 1791, images 1-39, each with an introduction in French and numbered pages.

These registers are followed by a duplicate 1791 register, same introduction in French, images 39-47. The signatures are the same in both registers: vicars Felix Rumpler or Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried, Joannes Mockers schoolmaster, and one other, so created simultaneously.

The records from 1788 to 1791 are followed by two introductory statements on September 13, 1792 by Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried, in German and Latin, and burial records signed by Lemfried from September 13, 1792 to December 1793, Images 48-62.

- Statement One from Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried, 13 September 1792 : 3E472/5 Images 47 and 48, German

On the 13 September of year 1792 according to decree of the French National committee Ignatius Hopp, named Lemfried, separated from his people and expelled from his village and sent into Exile because he renounced to God, Religion and catholic church, also faith to his King, and took oath to the Civil Constitution, and accepted Violence of the People, and scandalous atheist decrees of the Patriots who try to establish this ; stayed in exile one year one month and 5 days long, as the French Patriots were abolished by the Austrians, he came back on the 18th October of following year again to his church, reconciled with his parish, bringing the message that he took back his pastoral charge and caring for souls, after this Act, he wrote this in this book as well as he could, and applied himself to beg pardon and this has been accepted by his follower.

Signed : Ig. Hopp, named Lemfried

NB in this book is noticed that many entries are erroneously written, due to neglecting attitude of the parents, all this has to be considered as true however. For verification of entries signed : Schaal

- Statement Two from Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried, 13 September 1792 : 3E472/5 Image 48, Page 1, Latin

In year after Christ thousand seven hundred ninety second [1792] on the 13 September according to decree of Convention said National convention, Ignatius Hopp named Lemfried, separated from his community, parish and country, sent to exile as second time recognized permanently renouncing by his declarations to God, Religion, the Church of the Roman Catholic obedience, also fidelity to the King, in favor of what was named Civilian oath, and renouncing to his pastoral charge, all evils confirmed accepting even death and the scandalous abjurations of the Regicides, and decrees of the Civilian constitution oath, exile where he stayed one year one month and 5 days, came back on the 18 October next year to his Parish, shortly reconciled, exhorted to reconciliation to the church from his impious and sacrilegious behavior, asked his pardon by Alexander Ficker vicar and obtained his return among the people in a Mass of Sacrifice with Holy benediction and Hymn Te Deum song, that he could come back to his pastoral office and charge as refuge, so all this evil and blessing written down and remembered as well as he could in all honesty referred to by his successor vicars cited.

As recalled by undersigned : Ign Hopp named Lemfried vicar
