Signed: X Jacob Daul, Deggs witness, Rossillon, Philipps Kieffer provost, Wolff notary. [Translators Note: The spelling of Hättler was double checked to see if the name should have been spelled as Haller. In the first instance, it is very doubtful that Hättler is spelled as Häilllerin or Hälller. But in the second instance it is spelled as "Hoëlllerin" and the second "L" is very similar to a "t" but without usual bar. I wonder if the scribe himself did not hesitate in the spelling. Other documents must checked to determine if the name is Hättler or Haller, though in all likelihood the name is Hättler.]
