HAGUENAU 6E16 BUNDLE 269: 1674-1740

HARTMANN SORBEN

Meadows: One meadow on the Soufflenheim district named Obermatten, near the river, up is the common property, down another property. Goes to Hans. 1/4 meadows district Feinhack bann of Sessenheim, one side Hans Schuster, on one end towards the Feinhack garden, second side SPORERS DIEBOLD in SOUFFLENHEIM. Goes to Anna Margaretha. [The entire inventory was searched for people from Soufflenheim.]

MARTIN CHRISTMANN***

10 January 1674 Haguenau 6E16/269

Inventory made after death of Martin Christmann, in his lifetime a burgher in Soufflenheim who died 14 days before Pentecost of passed 1673, leaving as heirs two children and his widow: Anna Kuster, the children named : Maria Magdalena and Simon. All this has been inventoried after the will has been opened and its content read by me royal notary of Haguenau. Passed in presence of Hans Jacob Schöffter mayor, Lorenz Schöffter forester of this area, and Hans Mez burgher and justice counselor, also Johann Jäckh, schoolteacher, all this on the 10th of January 1674. [A will written 1672 the 3rd of April in favor of the widow is not repeated in exact terms.]

HANS SIGEL ***

11 January 1674 Haguenau 6E16/269

Inventory and description of property left after death by the deceased Hans Sigel, in his lifetime a burgher of Soufflenheim, who died eight days before Christmas of past year 1673, leaving as his heir : a child born of him and of his widow Catharina, and named Maria. This inventory made by me here today in presence of Jacob Schöffter, mayor, Lorentz Schöffter, forester and Hans Metz member of the justice, passed in Soufflenheim the 11th January 1674. [Hans Sigel's daughter Maria is listed as Maria Sigler in her 1707 Inventory. Both documents were double checked and the spelling is indeed Sigel and Sigler. They are linked together by the house and land records in their inventories. The description of the location of the house and three pieces of the land is either the same or very similar in both inventories. Maria Sigler (Siegel) married Mathis Kieffer in the mid 1690's. In another inventory written in 1710, a piece of land owned by Maria Sigler in 1707 matches a piece of land described as belonging to "Maria, Daughter of Hans Sigel"].

JACOB WAGNER & ODILIA WAGNER***

1677 (no day nor month) Haguenau 6E16/269

Inventory of the deceased Jacob Wagner, honorable and respected person, who after his death left the following complete property, and same of deceased Odilia Wagner, all they both have acquired and inherited together, in Soufflenheim as follows passed in year 1677. Goes to Johannes Wagner, heir, in the same place. Were present to this inventory: Hans Jacob Scheffer, mayor, Hans Metz and Joseph Burkhet, members of the justice counsel here in Soufflenheim. [At the end of the inventory it is states "

The farming material has been taken by Martin Wagner as mentioned in the account and estimate letter". Martin Wagner is not listed as an heir but he must have been somehow related to the deceased.]

BARTHEL GIGER & CATHARINA GIGER***

1677 (no day nor month) Haguenau 6E16/269

Left by the right honorable and respected Bartell Giger, and Catharina Giger both deceased, their complete property that they have inherited or acquired as follows, in the year 1677. In presence of Hans Jacob Schäffer, mayor, Hans Metz, Hans Kierr, Johannes Jäckh members of the justice council in Soufflenheim. [The names of the heirs are not known. Hans Dundt paid 24 gulden for a garden at auction. The inventory then states that "Each heir has so to be paid 6 gulden". So there must have been four heirs. The inventory mentions Mathis Giger (relationship to deceased unknown) paying Hans Dundt 25 gulden for the house. Hans Dundt's (relationship to deceased unknown) name is prominently listed at the beginning of the page listing assets to be inherited (distributed?), but neither Hans Dundt nor Mathis Giger is specifically listed as an heir. A person named Hans Martin Giger is mentioned as owning land adjacent to property inherited, so there are at least two other male Giger's living in Soufflenheim at this time. Perhaps Catharina's maiden name was Dundt]

HANS HERDELL & MARIA***

18 February 1678 Haguenau 6E16/269

Inventory of the complete property left at time of death by the honorable and respected Hans Herdell, as well of the deceased Maria, including what they have acquired and earned together, established as follows. Passed in Soufflenheim, February 18th, 1678. [There is no specific mention of heirs. However, on the second page is written the name Adam Herdell. No relationship to the deceased is given. The assets received by Adam are then listed. Halfway through the inventory the name Johannes Wagner is written, and again no relationship to the deceased is given. The assets received by Johannes are then listed. So Adam Herdell and Johannes Wagner must have been related in some way to the deceased. Perhaps Maria's maiden name was Wagner.]

HANS KIEREN***

09 August 1678 Haguenau 6E16/269

Inventory of the deceased honorable and respected Hans Kierren former justice counselor in Soufflenheim, describing all his property, that has been acquired in common with his wife Christina. Passed August 9th, 1678. Leaving as heirs : 1) His widow Christina [remarried to Urban Frey], 2) their son Adam, 3) their daughter Eva. Martin Kirr is guardian of the two children. Have attended this inventory and partake: Hans Jacob Schäffer mayor of Soufflenheim, and Hans Metz, justice counselor, Martin Kirren, guardian of the children, and Johannes Jäckh, scribe of the justice council there.

CLAUS TREYER & MARIA TREYER***

11 March 1679 Haguenau 6E16/269

Inventory of the deceased respected and honored Claus Treÿer and of Maria Trëyer deceased, what both have left after their death behind them, this complete property what they have acquired and inherited themselves, passed and written the 11 March year 1679. Claussell Treÿer [Beneficiary and presumably their son. He may have had a sister named Marie - also a beneficiary]. Present at this inventory were: The mayor Hans Jacob Schöffter in Soufflenheim, and Hans Metz, member of the justice council and guardian of Claussell, and Johannes Jäckh, scribe.

[Comments By Marie Peres: This document is not clear ; I always fear to explicitate in a wrong way ; what is sure is that both are dead (weyland Clauss Maria sellig) both deceased. I doubt unless they were a couple the mention "what they acquired and inherited together" could apply to a brother and sister, even if they lived together and single. Then, Claussell (a boy's first name, such as Claus) means young Clauss or small Clauss, and in the inventory they mention his guardian, so he is minor of years, unless this refers to a previous record when the house (at time on inheritance of parents ?) was received ? in this case Claussell would still have been a young boy, and his sister refers indeed to Maria (but never named a such) : or there are two heirs (never precised) Claussell and his sister. The inventory was made in assistance of the mayor, and of the guardian of Claussell, Hans Metz ; no mention of the sister, perhaps major of years and married ; but there is no allotment. One line also says "I have received" : so this must be Claussell, at this date, and Maria his sister. In this case Claus Treÿer and wife Maria Treÿerer (eventually born under a different name, had two children also named : Claussell, and Maria.)]

Follow the names of the brothers and sisters and first: Mathis Beck, Johannes Beck: Assisted by Michel Albrecht, Maria Beck:, Magdalena Beck: Assisted by Dominic Meÿer, Catharina Beck, Anna Maria Beck.

[Comments by Maria Peres: "The signature page contains additional information for some of the children, heirs, husbands and wives as follows: Mathis Beckh x (cross), Catharina Beckerin x cross dochter (daughter), Andreas Wagner x dochtermann (son in law), Magdalena Beckerin, dochter, ledig (daughter, single), Dominic Meyer als beystand (Dominic Meyer, guardian), Anna Maria Pauli, Sohns frau (daughter in law), Anna Maria Beckerin, dochter (daughter), Hans Georg Kieffer x dochtermann (son in law), Michel Albrecht, Beystand (guardian). So, men are named Beck or Beckh, and the women are named Becker (in). I believe that Johannes could be burgher as son of a burgher, and young (19 years old as on his mother's Inventory - Inventory of Anna Maria Göltzer, 20 July 1740) ; there is also a guardian named even for a major son if he is absent at that time, or has some incapacity ; single women of course do have a guardian also. Major women are represented by their husband. It may be a mistake that Johannes was in fact not a burgher at that time, only Mathis".]

ANALYSIS OF THE NAME MESSMER IN SOUFFLENHEIM

By Mark Drexler July, 2006

I have recently done a study to clarify the MESSMER surname that we occasionally find in the Soufflenheim records. For most of us, I'm sure, this spelling has long been regarded as an error and has been "corrected" to MESSNER at every opportunity. It is not an error. MESSMER was a family distinct from MESSNER in Soufflenheim.

For some time I have felt that the MESSMER spelling in the Soufflenheim records was intentional, largely because of its clear segregation from MESSNER in a portion of the "Ten-Year Tables". Also significant to me was that the name MESSMER was very often written by a fellow having the name MESSNER...and he would surely have spelled his own surname consistently. Additionally, emigrant Vincent Messmer can be found buried in Maryhill (Ontario) under the name MESMER. All of the North American records and transcriptions I have seen that apply to Vincent and his descendants -- writings not done by us latter-day Soufflenheim researchers or by the abominable census-takers -- have used the spelling MESMER or MESSMER. I recently stumbled into Vincent's ancestry while working from the "other end", exploring descendant lines from earlier Soufflenheimers, and realized that the early records also consistently used the MESSMER spelling.

It seems that Vincent's MESSMER clan in Soufflenheim was relatively small and late-arriving. The earliest record is that of the 12 November 1746 marriage of Michel MESSMER to Salome Metzler. The surname spelling is very clear. Michel was said to have originated in Surbourg and his parents were identified as Petri Messmer and Anna Maria Uler (neither of his parent's surnames is "native" to Soufflenheim). Michel and Salome's son Francois Joseph was baptized 25 March 1761, and the surname was spelled MESMER. Salome died and Michel married Barbe Stabler...and their child's baptism record (10 September 1765) uses what appears to be the spelling MOESMER. Then we have the 15 January 1788 marriage of Joseph, son of Michel and Salome, to Margaretha Buchmuller...and the spelling is clearly MESSMER. Joseph and Margaretha's son "Vincentius" was baptized on 1 Pluviose yr 12 (22 January 1804) and the surname was MESSMER. Joseph's death record of 22 December 1831 exhibits both MESMER and MESSMER. The 2 February 1833 marriage record of Vincent Messmer and Marie Anne Rund was again clear in its spelling of the surname. I would like to stress -- for those familiar with the horrible handwriting and skeptical about my use of the term "clear" -- that MESSMER in the records is almost always easily distinguishable from MESSNER.

The couples mentioned above, naturally, had other children besides those noted. The baptism, birth, marriage, and death records of these are almost all clear in their use of "M" rather than "N" in the surname. A reasonable number of MESSNER records (in lines known to be from the early MESSNER in Soufflenheim) were inspected and revealed no instance of a mistaken writing of MESSMER. It is apparent from the records that the Soufflenheim scribes realized there was a distinction to be made between the surnames MESSMER and MESSNER. I did find some actual errors...mostly in the transcriptions from the original records to the Ten-Year Tables. One baptism record and one marriage record of "established" MESSMER used the MESSNER spelling.

I think our "idealized" spelling should be MESSMER, despite the obvious potential for mistaken identity. Following Maryhill's example of MESMER encourages pronunciation with a "z" sound as in "mesmerize"...which seems to be incorrect, considering the predominant use of the double-s in the records.

JACOB DRECHSLER, BY MARK DREXLER, SEPTEMBER 2006:

Jacob Drechsler came from a tradition of surgeons before him. Caspar Wilhelm Drechsler was an immigrant to Soufflenheim, arriving shortly after his 1750 marriage in Fort-Louis (on the Rhine east of Soufflenheim), and almost all of the Soufflenheim records referring to him call him a surgeon (one called him "medici" or medical doctor, a different discipline...surgeons of that period were typically limited to "external" medicine...injuries and the like...but maybe the "country" surgeons did it all). It is merely speculation, but Wilhelm might have been in Fort-Louis working as a military surgeon (his marriage record does not address his occupation). Wilhelm's marriage record stated that his father Johannes Wilhelm Drechsler was a surgeon in Salzungen, Saxony...which I presume was Wilhelm's origin.

Surgeons were also in Jacob's mother's ancestry. Wilhelm's wife Catherine Herbrecht was a native of Gamsheim (south of Soufflenheim). She descended from Jacob Staudter who appears in the earliest Gamsheim church records (mid-1600s). This earliest ancestor and his presumed brother were surgeons and many of their descendants either became surgeons or married surgeons.

Jacob was arguably the most accomplished member of the Drechsler clan of Soufflenheim. His activities caused him to appear in a great many records. His professions apparently also included some sort of "postmaster" and "health official". He had the duty of writing and signing what appear to be the first of the "civil" records in November 1792 (these records are actually in the church record book). Jacob was married three times and had at least fifteen children...and died in 1827 at the age of 76.
