"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field; which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches." - Matthew 13: 31-32

Reflections from our Pastor

Dear friends,

As 2026 begins, changes unfold, personal and in the life of the church. Change is a sign of life, and opportunity!

Personally, many of us start the year by looking back, and then looking forward with ideas for things we hope to do, change, or accomplish. Resolutions, or intentions can help us focus, but it isn't a success/failure concept - we try things out, and some things work out, others ask us to try again. Such is life.

As a church, we are looking at a year of intentional strengthening of lay leadership while reducing pastoral service hours. A new way of serving Christ together.

25+ years ago when in seminary we read "An Unnecessary Pastor" as part of our studies - not exactly the concept I was hoping for as I had committed 5 years to graduate studies after completing my undergrad degree. And yet, it made sense then, and now. Luther believed and encouraged "the priesthood of all believers" - in part, a concept that affirms that every person is gifted to serve God's purpose and invited to trust in where Jesus is leading. It doesn't negate the importance of clergy for specific roles and purposes, but it celebrates that all can serve.

As my ministry schedule is reduced, please rest assured that I am available and will make time. Please do not assume that I am "too busy," or that your concern isn't "big enough." But, what I can't do responsibly within a shorter time is keep up and chase down information about daily life. I need you to contact me as needed.

So, here is a list of "when to call the pastor," adapted from the work of a wise mentor many years ago.

1. If you are going to the hospital, or are there unexpectedly;
2. When life has tough moments: your marriage is struggling; substance abuse (yours or someone else's) is impacting your life; employment or housing challenges;
3. When a difficult decision arises;
4. When there is a death in the family;
5. When grief feels overwhelming and endless;
6. When you feel spiritually spent or unwell;
7. When marriage plans are being made that include the church;
8. When you want to simply talk to your pastor.

Pastors cannot "fix" things, but serve as resources and reminders of the support of the community of believers.

Your council is also available for logistical and/or business questions.

So, as I look towards 2026:

Confirmation: Please contact me if you have a youth who is interested in learning more about their baptism, faith, the Bible and Luther's Catechism and their life within their church family.

Our year together holds much promise. May all we do be pleasing in God's sight.

In service,

Pr Sylvia

Message From the Chair

Our building, 47 MacLachlan Street has a heart and soul. I truly believe in that. Buildings are not like humans who have a heart and a soul at birth. Buildings start as brick and mortar and lumber and metal and glass and wires and cables and are as formless as the earth was on the morning of the creation described in Genesis. But over time, the building absorbs the hopes and fears and aspirations of the people that pass through it.

Think of Westminster Abbey. Think of the Alhambra in Spain. Think of our own Pier 21 in Halifax. My parents and my sister, along with a million other people, entered Canada by walking into that ugly hall first. I wonder if the excitement outshone the terror, or if it was the other way around.

So it is with 47 MacLachlan: sometimes the best time for me, is sitting alone in a pew in an empty church. It is then I hear the voices of all who were baptized here, those who were married here, those who mourned here. I feel the excitement and toil here of the builders and the renovators. Sometimes I hear the discussions and enthusiasms of all those who maintain and care for the church and the alter guild and the hospitality team. That time in the church to me, acts like a balm for the soul. The daily assault of news clips, the incessant commercialization and commodification of food, water, space, and the air we breathe, the constant noise, all make me crave for quiet and serenity.

I soon come to the realization that the building is just reflecting the love and energy of all the people who have passed through it. So many people with tears, laughter, and wisdom have sat in our pews and I am convinced it is all there for the taking.

So why take it? Because we need it. We need the collective wisdom in those walls, in those pews to guide us. Just as the pages flip on our earthly calendar, just as our tiny puny sand grain of a solar system drifts through space, so do we. We have no choice but to move ahead.

We will be talking about that at our Annual General Meeting. We will be attempting to discern where the spirit is leading us. For most, that would be a tough task, as they would be doing it alone. But we have the strength and spirit of all who have ever passed through our doors. We are blessed indeed.

Andy Kalnins

Congregational Meeting on Finances, November 23, 2025

Please see the data table and notes below which provide more detail on the following summary:

- A $9000 deficit is projected for Dec. 31, somewhat reduced by year end offerings, gratefully received.
- The budget for 2026 was approved, with a projected deficit of about $11000.
- We have money in our reserves, close to $100,000, to cover deficits and shortfalls.
- Because we have strong lay leadership and committees, we determined the professional ministry needs can be reduced somewhat while continuing to offer vibrant ministry.
- The congregation approved having Pastor Sylvia serve 3 weeks out of 4 in a month, 4 out of 5 in 5 Sunday months. This helps keep the projected deficit at a manageable level and introduces intentional "Creative Ministry Sundays", once per month, led primarily by laity with pastoral support.

While the full 2025 Annual Report will include financially reviewed statements and 2026 budget, our AGM we will focus on mission and ministry. Some flexibility within the approved budget possible.

You are welcome to contact Enid with any questions. eblackwell.ca@gmail.com

Many thanks to Lynn Rosien for the creation of the many "Santa ornaments" for the younger members of St James & St. John's.

We all appreciate the care and detail that our Altar Guild takes in preparing our church for the Advent & Christmas Season. Many hands make beautiful work. Joanne & Lorne, Randy and Cathy, P+Norine, and Lorne Rueckwald.

The Pastoral Care Team created a dozen cookie plates that were delivered to members who are ill or are unable to attend church in person. Enid, Debbie W. P+ Norine with help from Maureen & Debbie K.

We are grateful to the following families for their gracious donations of flowers for December and earlier in the year: Ed & Carol Chippior & family in memory of deceased members of the Jahn family. Bob & Debbie Witt, Gwen Steinke, Jeff & Debbie Kargus, and Mel & Marion Bretzlaff.

Many thanks to the "grounds snow crew" of Randy, Lorne R. and Jeff for keeping our walkways safe! Also to Judy who carefully cleans up after us every MONDAY morning.

And thanks to Dave our faithful electronic station-master, shown here at the console for an Advent Worship time.

Special Contributions

Over the course of the year, some members choose to contribute 'special' donations for specific ministries within our current operating budget and/or for Outreach causes, in addition to giving their regular offerings.

In 2025, over $4,000, plus some freely donated items, have been received this way for: communion, altar, office, printing, property and youth program supplies, flowers, music (for organists, music licence, organ tuning), Outreach team costs, Eternity for Today booklets, special occasions (e.g. Easter and Thanksgiving), for benevolence (to Eastern Synod), and for the Food Bank, Teachers Against Poverty, and Canadian Lutheran World Relief. On the rare occasion that any 'special' donations for an operating ministry exceed its cost, funds support other ministries in our approved budget.

Thank you to the many who provide such contributions for our own ministry expenses and for the support, empowerment and dignity of others locally, nationally and worldwide!

The Treasurer, on behalf of Council

A special service of Healing and Hope was held on November 22nd. This was an opportunity for people to bring their needs, the needs of the world and their hopes and fears for a time of sanctuary.

The Best Advice

- Nothing changes if nothing changes.
- If it's meant to serve you, and it doesn't (and it's affordable), replace it. Daily things like your bag, your water bottle, your socks. Find ones you actually like using.
- You don't need to tell everyone everything that goes into making the chicken soup.
- Don't think harder, breathe deeper. Most of us are surviving on shallow sips of air.
- Never second-guess going to a funeral.
- We tend to forget that baby steps still move us forward.
- It'll be fine or it'll be over.
- Ask yourself: What if there was no problem to solve right now?
- Write what's bothering you down on a piece of paper; put it in a little box. A year later, read what's in there and see if you don't start laughing.
- Best advice for decluttering: If you didn't own it, would you buy it again?
- Stop trying to calm the storm. Calm yourself, the storm will pass.
- Always have a bottle of Champagne chilling in the fridge.
- Sometimes, you have to let people lie to you. You don't always have to be right or call people on their nonsense.
- Put away your phone whenever there is a human being in front of you.

Rest Your Mind

I know you have been laying awake at night wondering why baby diapers have brand names such as "Luvs", "Huggies," and "Pampers", while undergarments for old people are called "Depends".

Well here is the low down on the whole thing.

When babies crap in their pants, people are still gonna Luv'em, Hug'em and Pamper' em. When old people crap in their pants, it "Depends" on who's in the will!

Glad I got that straightened out so you can rest your mind.

I just realized that I haven't done the "Hokey Pokey" in over 10 years. I guess
when you get older, you just forget what it's all about.
