

Six Sounds for Longevity

The Six Sounds for Longevity

Six Sounds – Six Organs – Six Qigong Movements – and much, much more ...

Retreat with Qigong Master Lin Kai Ting

Body, Mind, and Sound in harmonious resonance!

Thursday, June 25 through Sunday, June 28, 2026
Klangwelt Toggenburg, CH-9658 Wildhaus SG (Switzerland)

www.klangwelt.ch

The «Six Sounds for Longevity» is a practice based on ancient Asian wisdom for healthy living. Six Qigong movements and according sound patterns relate to inner organs: Liver, Heart, Spleen, Lungs, Kidneys, and «Triple Warmer». This meditative practice brings Body, Mind, and Sound into resonance, which has health-promoting effects and can enhance overall well-being and the quality of life in general.

Organizers and Facilitator

Qigong Master Lin Kai Ting (www.qilingong.com) and the Competency Center for Integral Evolution and Leadership (www.cciel.ch) invite you to a regenerative long weekend full of resonance and mindfulness at this poetic location (www.klangwelt.ch) in a picturesque landscape.
