Humboldt County & Pershing County

79th Annual Conference

Winnemucca, Nevada

About the Humboldt and Pershing County Courthouses

The Humboldt County and Pershing County Courthouses were both designed by Frederic Joseph DeLongchamps (June 2, 1882 – February 11, 1969). He was one of Nevada's most prolific architects yet is notable for entering the architectural profession with no extensive formal training.

The Pershing County Courthouse is believed to be the last round courthouse still in use today. It remains in use despite regular jests about the odds of getting a square deal in a round courthouse. The building has a colorful past, dating back to Feb. 25, 1919, when a bill was introduced by Assemblyman Crofton Uniacke to incorporate Lovelock as the seat of a new county. At the time, Lovelock and what today is Pershing County were part of Humboldt County.

Half a year before, on July 20, 1918, the old Humboldt County Courthouse in nearby Winnemucca burned down. The Humboldt County Courthouse was erected between 1920 and 1921 to replace the original 1874 county courthouse, which had burned. The new courthouse occupies the same site as its predecessor facing Bridge Street, one of the city's first arterials. The interior of the building is the most monumental of DeLongchamps's commissions in Nevada, featuring a sweeping marble staircase and a two-story atrium with iconic columns and a leaded glass ceiling

Many of DeLongchamps' works have been listed on the National Register. DeLongchamps also designed courthouses in Carson City (Ormsby County), Clark County, Douglas County, Washoe County, and Lyon County,

DeLongchamps died in Reno, Nevada on February 11, 1969. He was survived by his son, Galen (08 Aug 1916-22 Jul 2001). He was the father-in-law of the noted poet and artist Joanne de Longchamps (that is how she spelled the name), who married DeLongchamps's adopted son Galen.

MISSION STATEMENT

The County Fiscal Officers Association of the State of Nevada is an organization of elected and appointed officials that promotes high work standards, unquestionable ethics and the highest standards of integrity. PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am happy to welcome you to the 79th County Fiscal Officers Association Conference in Humboldt County! It promises to be another wonderful conference! Thank you to Humboldt and Pershing Counties for their contributions and hard work making this happen. A special shout-out to our host committee members; Gina Rackley, Rhona Lecumberry, Tia Lange, and Tami Spero from Humboldt County and from Pershing County, Lacey Donalson, Barrie Medeiros, Melanie Hamilton, and Stephiene Yenni. I love the collaborative efforts of a combined conference, it truly reflects the spirit of CFOA, support from our colleagues and friends.

As I considered what to write in this message, this year's theme "Leadership" keeps coming to mind. Maybe it was fate, if you believe in that sort of thing, or coincidence if you don't. Regardless, I found inspiration from an unexpected source, an email from Southwest Airlines. This email was not advertisement and sadly not a free trip; instead, it honored the first female president of an airline who had recently passed away. Intrigued, I dug a little deeper.

While I read about Colleen Barrett, I could not help but draw parallels to public service. Her, dedication to people, her passion for service, and joy in seeing those around her succeed are qualities that I thought strongly connect with us as leaders and public servants.

Colleen was much more than a title; she was the heart and soul of SW and personified leadership long before she was given an official title. Colleen lived by the "Golden Rule", treating others as you would like to be treated – a timeless principle that aligns perfectly with the ideals of ethics, transparency, honesty, integrity, and trust; that are reflected in our own CFOA mission statement.

As you listen to the speakers over the next few days, remember why you chose public service and how, as leaders we can foster a work environment that people want to be a part of. This, in turn, will help our communities thrive.

Finally, thank you for the opportunity to serve as the CFOA President this past year. I am honored to have worked alongside Shawnee Garren, Kim Todd, Shawn Frehner, and Jan Galassini. Their support during my time on the executive board has been greatly appreciated.

Also, a heartfelt thank you to our sponsors! Your generous support has been instrumental in making this conference possible and ensuring its success. And let's not forget that the day to day support you provide all of us is invaluable.

We have a wonderful and supportive organization in CFOA, thanks to the dedication and hard work of those who serve on boards and committees and all of course our members. To all our new members, we welcome your participation and enthusiasm as we continue to grow and learn together.

2024 CFOA President – Jennifer McCain
