Fourth Sunday of Easter

ACTS 4: 8-12; 1 JN 3:1-2, JOHN 10: 11-18

The Lord rejected the title “good” when the rich ruler addressed him as a good teacher (Lk. 18:18), saying, “no one is good but God alone.” In this case, he identifies with us in our imperfections. When however, he affirms “I am the good shepherd,” he affirms his oneness with God the Father who is the shepherd of Israel (Ps. 80:1). As a man, when Jesus assumed the title of Good Shepherd, he restored to humanity the blessing of original goodness (Gen. 1:31). This was God's crown on the entire creation, distorted by sin and restored in Christ. He challenges us to imitate his goodness which is intrinsic to his nature. His life is the model that we should imitate.

There is an internal walkway between the two domes

Since two domes were needed to build the massive cupola, there is a small passage between the two. Inside is a narrow spiral staircase. Visitors and pilgrims alike can ascend the steps of the cupola, walking at an incline literally between the two domes, and each of the heights of the lantern at the very top of the cupola.
