As we approach the 165th anniversary of our church, we are taking a look at the history of events that shaped who we are today. If you know what these ladies are doing, if you participated in this mission through the years, or even if you have heard the ladies talk of this event, please write down your recollections and send them to me. We will print some of them in the bulletins or Rocktonians as we head toward our anniversary date in October. Email them to:

You may also drop them through the mail slot at the church and we can get them there.

Many: We pray for those fathers who, without a good model for a father, have worked to become good at parenting.

We celebrate those fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who now offer those children their love and support.

We pray for those fathers who have been wounded by the disregard, even hostility of their children.

We celebrate those fathers who, despite divorce, remain intentionally engaged in their children's lives.

We celebrate those fathers who are adoptive parents, and whose love and support offer new life.

We celebrate those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the covenant of parenthood and always strive for their stepchildren's love and relationship.

We pray for those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart, more of who he is because his child came into this world.

We celebrate those who have no children, but purposefully care for the next generation as if they were their own.

We celebrate those who have fathered us in their role as mentors and guides.

We celebrate those who are about to become fathers, and pray that they may unflinchingly delight in their children.

And we celebrate fathers who have died, but always live on in our memory, made us more of who we are, and whose love continues to nurture us.

All: Amen

PRAYER SONG It is Well With My Soul UMH 377

PRAYER / PRAYER RESPONSE Nada te turbe / Nothing can trouble (Taizé)

SCRIPTURE (NRSV)

Romans 6:1b-11 Dying and Rising with Christ 6 What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? 2 By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? 3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. 6 We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. 7 For whoever has died is freed from sin. 8 But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. 9 We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. 10 The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. 11 So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Acts 1:6-8 The Ascension of Jesus 6 So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" 7 He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth

OFFERING/OFFERING SONG To the Ends of the Earth by Marty Sampson, Joel Houston

Verse:

Love unfailing, overtaking my heart, You take me in Finding peace again, Fear is lost in all You are

Pre Chorus:

And I would give the world to tell Your story
'Cause I know that You've called me
I know that You've called me
I've lost myself for good within Your promise
And I won't hide it, I won't hide it

Chorus:

Jesus I believe in You,
And I would go To the ends of the earth,
To the ends of the earth
For You, alone are the Son of God
And all the world will see
That You are God, that You are God
