

DID YOU KNOW?

You can help the Goshen Township Historical Society in many ways. Your support helps connect our past to our future, so people can understand how our community became what it is today.

You can leave a legacy by naming the Goshen Township Historical Society in your will or trust. You may also choose to make the Society a beneficiary of life insurance, IRAs, retirement plans, bank accounts, or investment accounts. For legal or tax advice, please consult an independent attorney or tax advisor.

The Goshen Township Historical Society is very grateful to everyone who donates. Your support helps keep the Anchorage House Museum and the Cook Cabin open to the public. Without donations, we cannot maintain these historic buildings or share them with the community.

As Goshen grows, we want to continue recording and preserving our history for future generations. Donations to the Goshen Township Historical Society, a non-profit organization (501(c)3), that is recognized by the IRS as a non-profit organization, may be tax-deductible. You will receive documentation for your records for donations. Always consult a professional tax advisor to see if your donation is tax deductible.
