

DID YOU KNOW?

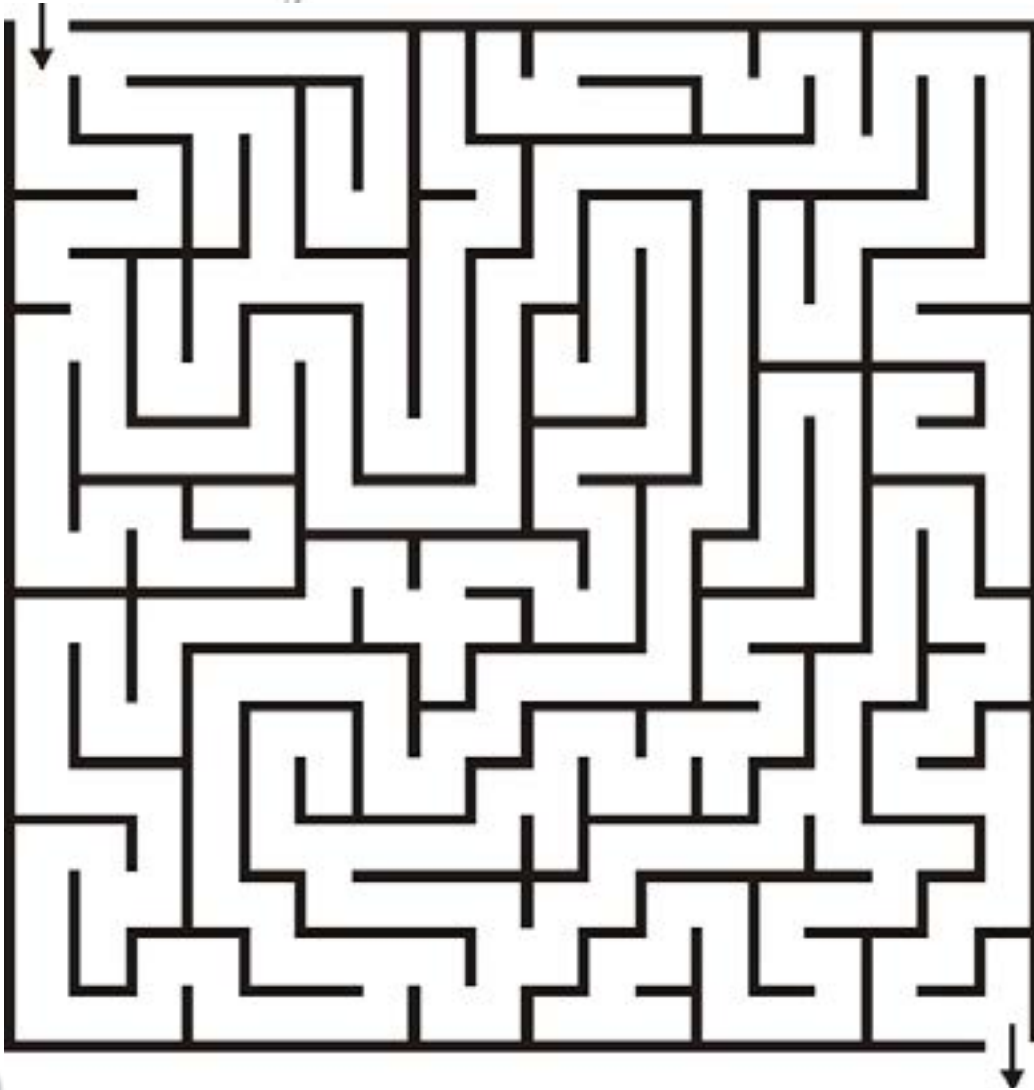

Butterflies and bees help take pollen from one part of the flower—the ANTHER—to another part of the flower—the PISTIL, that leads to the eggs. This process called pollination is how a seed is formed to create new plants!

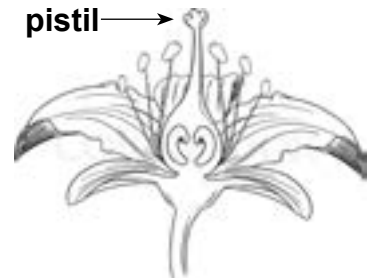

Help this butterfly take the pollen from the anther to the pistil.

anther

pistil

Compliments of

