PRESENTED BY CHANNEL MARKER
MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS SUPPORT

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2019

Dear Friends of the Mid-Shore Community,

Channel Marker presents the Kevin Hines Story, an evidenced based suicide prevention speaking engagement to the mid-shore community, featuring nationally suicide survivor, global public speaker, award winning documentary filmmaker, and best-selling author, Kevin Hines.

SUICIDE PREVENTION EDUCATION FOR PROFESSIONALS (TIME TBD)

Held at the Todd Performing Arts Center at Chesapeake College, this two part speaking engagement will provide a Suicide Prevention Education opportunity for (CEUs paid for by Mid-Shore Behavioral Health) for teachers, first responders, veterans, and healthcare and human service professionals. Time TBD. Limited Social Work CEUs available. A VIP Meet & Greet will be available. Kevin Hines will present the 'Kevin Hines Story' FREE to the Public 6:30P-8P.

6P-8:30P FREE PUBLIC EVENT—THE KEVIN HINES STORY

In the Year 2000, Kevin attempted to take his life by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge. Many factors contributed to his miraculous survival including a sea lion which kept him afloat until the Coast Guard arrived. Kevin now travels the world sharing his story of hope, healing, and recovery while teaching people of all ages the art of wellness and the ability to survive pain with true resilience.

We invite you to partner with us as an event sponsor for this event. Your support will help increase awareness of the importance of suicide prevention and education, encourage the mid-shore community to start talking about the topic of suicide, and to promote healthy healing as well as shining a light on hope for individuals and their communities.

We look forward to discussing sponsorship opportunities with you as we work toward helping to save lives through suicide awareness and prevention.

Sincerely,

Debbie Jackson
Executive Director

You don't want to miss this life-changing event!
