PRESENTED BY CHANNEL MARKER
MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS SUPPORT

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2019

Dear Friends of the Mid-Shore Community,

Channel Marker presents the Kevin Hines Story, an evidenced based suicide prevention free speaking engagement open to the public. Kevin Hines is a national suicide survivor, public speaker, award winning documentary filmmaker, and best-selling author. In the Year 2000, Kevin attempted to take his life by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge. Many factors contributed to his miraculous survival including a sea lion which kept him afloat until the Coast Guard arrived. Kevin now travels the world sharing his story of hope, healing, and recovery while teaching people of all ages the art of wellness and the ability to survive pain with true resilience.

SUICIDE PREVENTION EDUCATION FOR PROFESSIONALS 1:30P – 3:30P INCLUDES MEET & GREET

The event will be held at the Todd Performing Arts Center at Chesapeake College, on Thursday September 19, as a two-part speaking engagement. The Suicide Prevention Education for Professionals session begins at 1:30P – 3:30P and includes a meet & greet. CEUs will be provided by Mid Shore Behavioral Health, Inc., an approved sponsor of the Maryland Board of Social Work Examiners for continuing education credits for licensed social workers in Maryland. Two FREE Social Work CEU credits will be offered to the first 125 registered Social Workers. The Suicide Prevention Education session is ideal for school professionals, first responders, veterans, healthcare and human service professionals.

'THE KEVIN HINES STORY' 6:30P-8P FREE TO PUBLIC - VIP MEET & GREET 5P-6P

The 'Kevin Hines Story' concludes the second session with a FREE Public event from 6:30P-8:00P.

Channel Marker welcomes you to partner with us as an event sponsor to help increase awareness of the importance of suicide prevention and education, encourage the community to start talking about the topic of suicide, and to promote healthy healing as well as shining a light on hope for individuals and their communities.

We look forward to discussing sponsorship opportunities with you as we work toward helping to save lives through suicide awareness and prevention.

Sincerely,

Debbye Jackson
Executive Director

You don't want to miss this life-changing event!
