Our Feb. Message from Kaye's Korner

January has come and gone. I don't know about the rest of our members but it seemed much colder than usual. Some interesting information about this month... Did you know that the month of February starts on the same day of the week as March and November in the years it has 28 days and the same day of the week as August on leap years? And it ends on the same day of the week as October each year. Check it out.

We hope you've made your plans to attend Day at the Races on the 14th. Vic Fragnito needed your reservation by February 3. If you need to contact him, you can reach Vic at (602) 908-0740 or e008821@cox.net. Cost is $24 per person and includes parking, admission, how to wager guide, senior buffet lunch, coffee/tea, dessert, tax and gratuity plus a winner circle photograph with the jockey and his horse.

There was an excellent turn out again for our January 26th Southwest Airlines tour. If you haven't done so already, I know Keith Hughes would love to receive your thoughts and compliments on his hard work.

The February 16th tour of the Sanderson Village & Museum is sold out; however, there are a couple more planned for early March. Again, if you're interested, contact Keith Hughes.

Those of you who are joining Barbara Rippstein on the March 5th Eastern Caribbean Cruise, be sure to take plenty of photographs and make those of us who weren't able to sail with you VERY envious. Enjoy!

So, in closing, I hope everyone has a great month and celebrate Valentine's Day with someone special.

Kaye

There seems to be some confusion when paying your dues.

My name Shani Solberg

I am sending out this message to those who are sending in your due's.
I am the one who collects the money and updates the roster with Linda Schultz.

Please, when sending in your money for your dues and nothing has changed in your address.
DO NOT FILL OUT THE APPLICATION sheet.

This takes so much time to cross check everything to our roster. Just send in your check and this will save us a lot of time; all I will have to do is enter the amount of money. Thank you so much...

The Southwest Airlines Tour was January 26th, 2017

Fifty club members from Air Research, Garrett, Allied, Honeywell and Sperry clubs toured Southwest Airlines Maintenance Facility. The two 737-700 aircraft in the hangar were undergoing their 500-day overhaul so we were unable to go aboard but our host, Kevin Bowman did a fine job explaining the facility operation and the history of the airline. We learned how the tail of the 737-700 aircraft is too tall for the hangar so they lift the nose wheel up to drop the tail to get the aircraft in the hangar. This was our third visit and if there is sufficient interest we will arrange another visit in a few months.

This hilarious musical parody staged to classic tunes from the '60s, '70s and '80s will have you cheering and dancing in the aisles. See what millions of women worldwide have been laughing about for 14 years! Set in a department store, four women with seemingly nothing in common but a black lace bra on sale come to find they have more to share than ever imagined. The cast makes fun of their woeful hot flashes, forgetfulness, mood swings, wrinkles, night sweats and chocolate binges. A sisterhood is created between these diverse women as they realize that menopause is no longer The Silent Passage, but a stage in every woman's life that is perfectly normal!

EASTERN CARIBBEAN CRUISE

Sailing roundtrip from Ft. Lauderdale on MARCH 5, 2017 aboard the New REGAL PRINCESS ®

Cruise Notes:

Our last port is St. Kitts and Nevis. Jagged volcanoes soaring above azure and turquoise seas, dense rainforests in myriad shades of green, rolling fields of sugarcane welcome you to St. Kitts. Along with its neighbor, Nevis, St. Kitts presents an exotic landscape more common to Polynesia than the Caribbean. St. Kitts and Nevis were once the crown jewels of the Caribbean. During the 17th and 18th centuries, Spain, France and England vied for control of the islands, with the English finally winning out in 1787.

Today, British and French heritage is evident on both islands. Basseterre, the capital of St. Kitts, boasts fine, restored colonial buildings. Impressive Brimstone Hill Fortress, called the "Gibraltar of the West Indies," is one of the most impressive fortresses in the Caribbean.

Your tour choices include kayaking, snorkeling, rainforest walks, and dolphin swims. For a, less physical day, there are visits to early great houses and even a Caribbean Culinary Demonstration and tasting.

We will be in port from 8am to 5pm followed by two days at sea. Then back to Fort Lauderdale.

The ORPHEUM Theatre

Free Tour March 6 & 7, 2017 at 10 am

This 1 hour tour time is exclusive to our clubs takes you behind the scenes and hear the organ play. Bring your camera and be ready to be "wowed." The Orpheum Theatre is a 1364-seat theatre in downtown Phoenix. This venue was originally used for vaudeville acts as part of the nationwide Orpheum Circuit. After falling into disrepair for some years, the Orpheum Theatre was purchased in 1984 by the city of Phoenix, which then began a 12-year, $14 million restoration. The Orpheum reopened on January 28, 1997, with a performance of Hello, Dolly! starring Carol Channing. After the performance, Ms. Channing, still in costume but out of character, thanked the audience for "not turning this beautiful theatre into a parking lot!" Each tour is limited to 40 people. Contact Keith Hughes at keith8411@cox.net for reservations. Give your date preference and the newsletter you saw this article in.

"Can you hear me?" scam has police urging people to hang up immediately; Published January 27, 2017 File photo: A man stands in the middle of Grand Central Terminal as he speaks on a cell phone in New York, September 25, 2013. (REUTERS/Zoran Milich)"Can you hear me?"

Police in several states are urging people to avoid answering this simple question from a phone number they do not know. Authorities in Virginia say the question is aimed at getting unsuspecting victims to say "yes" -- an answer the fraudster then records as a way to authorize charges on a phone, utility or credit card bill. The scam is a variation of one that began late last year, according to law enforcement.

"You say 'yes,' it gets recorded and they say that you have agreed to something," Susan Grant, director of consumer protection and privacy for the Consumer Federation of America, told CBS News. "I know that people think it's impolite to hang up, but it's a good strategy.

"In those phone calls, scammers were using phrases like, "Are you the lady of the house?"; "Do you pay the household telephone bills?"; or "Are you the homeowner? "Similar calls are now being reported in Virginia -- with criminals asking the question, "Can you hear me? "Usually it has a familiar area code," Officer Jo Ann Hughes with the Norfolk Police Department told WTKR-TV. "That kind of warms you up," Hughes told the station, warning that those on the receiving end should hang up the phone immediately.

In many cases, scammers will play back a person's verbal confirmation and threaten to take legal action if they try to deny the charges. "A lot of times, victims do not want to come forward because they are embarrassed. They feel like, 'It was my fault. I should have known better,' and they are just embarrassed by it all together. So, we do not get a whole lot of reports, unfortunately," Hughes told the station.

Looking for new board members

The Sperry Retiree Club (SRC) currently has 11 Board members working to keep the Club going. As the Club gets older so do we. Several of these members have been on the board for many years. If anything was to happen to them or they resign from the Board, the Sperry Retire Club could be in jeopardy. To keep SRC from being at risk we need more Board members.

If you can spare a little time and like to work with others, please contact any one of the Board Members on page 2. What do you get for doing this? The same as us, the pleasure of knowing you are keeping a legend going.

My boss informed me that my 30th Anniversary was coming up and it would be in the cafeteria. When the day came, my boss called and said be in his office by 11:45PM since the dinner was at Noon. When I arrived at his office, he said where is your tie. I said I did not know I needed one. He showed me an assortment of ties to choose one from.

When we went to the dinner, they served Cordon Blue; instead of sticking my fork in to release the pressure, I just started cutting it and juice came out like a fire hose all over my bosses borrowed tie. Embarrassed I looked at him and he looked at me and said YOU CAN KEEP IT and we started laughing.

Smell?

One day there was an event going on at the German Club so three of us decide to attend. The ladies met me at my house as I was going to drive and off we went and what a time we had, good food, dancing and being with longtime friends who we worked with at Sperry.

This event was during the day and it was warm outside so my vehicle had to sit in the sun so it was nice and warm on our drive home. Well the car started to smell and I thought maybe one of the girls was passing gas!! It did get stronger when I drove along so I asked “are you letting some gas go?” Her response was “I thought you were” we all then laughed.

When we got to my home I check in the car and there I found a head of mushy cauliflower that had rolled under the back seat and I did not know it was there. It was sure ripe, but we did have a good laugh.
