

Ready for your first job

TCG WORKS

A mini workshop with the first-job crew

Small challenges. Your own way to join in.

Meet the first-job crew

Ben loves cooking and has Down syndrome.

Maya is Deaf and loves photos.

Leo is autistic and enjoys maps.

Aisha designs clothes and uses a wheelchair.

Sam loves fixing bikes.

Five fictional friends. Everyone has something to offer.

Ben's bag challenge

Tomorrow is Ben's first shift.

He packs his bag tonight.

What does he need?

Bag check: Think of three useful items.

Maya's reminder challenge

Maya saves her start time.

She chooses a vibrating reminder to leave.

Her bag is already ready.

One more video? It can wait.

Your turn: Choose a reminder you would notice.

Leo's time puzzle

Practice: Leo starts at 9:00.

His trip takes 30 minutes.

He wants 10 extra minutes.

Quick puzzle: Leave at 8:20 or 8:50?

Aisha and Sam check in “Where do we check in?”

“Who do we contact if delayed?”

Ask for instructions in a way
that works for you.

New-job questions are welcome.

Role-play: You're new. Ask one question.

Plot twist: the bus is late

Sam's bus is delayed.

He safely contacts his supervisor.

“My bus is late. I expect to arrive at 9:10.”

A clear update beats “almost there!”

Your turn: Practice your own delay message.

My first-day challenge

My start time: _____

My leave or log-in time: _____

I will pack: _____

My backup contact: _____

Pick one step to practice. Then give yourself credit!

You can say it, sign it, type it or point.