"This was the best session of the conference!"

"After multiple days of information overload this presentation was the perfect way to end the conference!"

"Everything you talked about was so relatable...I can't wait to start using these tools!"

"Very well presented. Kept my attention until the end. Loved it."

"I'm smiling a heck of a lot more than I was before this session!"

Keynotes Presented to the following organizations (among others):

Premier Member, Women Speakers Association

Known as "The Joy Seeker", Lisa inspires and provides strategies for people to seek out, create, and spread joy every single day.

How? Through her Amazon best-selling book, speaking at conferences and events internationally, and officiating weddings of all sizes (250 happy couples and counting!)

Most people are pretty darn amazing and too often don't recognize their own greatness. She's on a mission to change that. We all have struggles, but our struggles don't define us. No matter what challenges we're faced with, there's always joy to be found - if we know where to look.

Located in Colorado, Lisa speaks to groups locally and all across the globe. As a Premier Member of the Women Speakers Association, she knows how to captivate participants by telling powerful stories, sharing a lot of laughs, and even tossing in a little bit of magic occasionally.

Best of all, attendees come away feeling renewed and armed with actionable tools for recognizing their own greatness and owning their joy. They'll learn how to love their lives and feel more productive (professionally and personally) than they ever thought possible.

Delivering talks that mix moments of magic with meaningful messages.
