John 12:24

Unless a kernel of wheat falls to
the ground and dies,
it remains only a single seed.
But if it dies, it produces many seeds.

Parish Annual General Meeting and Parish Call Meeting, Sunday 14 April 2024 at 1.30pm, St John's Church Kingaroy.

South Burnett Lutheran Parish has a vacancy for an experienced Administration Assistant in the Parish Office.

Current hours of employment – up to eight hours per week. Weekly bulletin is usually printed on Friday. Applicants must have a good knowledge of general office practices and procedures, including basic computer software programs. Further information and a detailed Job Description and Criteria is available upon request from the Parish Office – kroy.luth@gmail.com. Applications close 15 April 2024.

Michelle Randall has informed the Parish Council that she will be leaving her position at South Burnett Lutheran Parish Office. Her last day is Thursday 28 March. She is taking up the position of Science Technician at Kingaroy State High School. We will miss Michelle. She has been a valued support to the Parish and to Pastor Noel. We wish her God's blessing in her future endeavours.

Today's notes on the Gospel: John 12:20-33: When some Greeks wished to see Jesus, the answer of Jesus to their request (conveyed by Andrew and Philip) was an announcement of his coming passion. Jesus' real glorification was to be in fulfilling the will of the Father that his single death would bring eternal life for all. Any who would see this 'glorification' could do so only through faith which loses the worldly life but gains the heavenly and transforms the believer to the joy of loving service to the Father. The voice of God (as at Sinai) affirms Jesus' announcement and determination. Through his death and resurrection Satan is driven out and Jesus draws all to himself.

Lenten Bible Studies

The final Lenten video bible studies on Jonah, by Pastor Matt Thiele will be held in the supper room at St John's Kingaroy this Friday at 9.30am, followed by morning tea. All welcome.
