Pray This Week for the following:

Philippians 4.4,6-7

Rejoice in the Lord always. ... Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

During this Holy Week or Passion week, as Jesus was preparing for his rejection, suffering and death on the cross, remember in your prayers those who suffer and are persecuted simply because they bear the name of Christ and trust in and worship Him.

You may wish to remember the Christians of China, North Korea. Islamic countries in Africa – Somalia, Libya, Eritrea, Yemen, Nigeria and Pakistan and many others. Open Doors (opendoors.org) estimates there are 317 million Christians facing “high or extreme levels of persecution.

Thank God for the freedom that we have to worship and practice as Christians.

Anyone needing our prayers? Please send email requests to kroy.luth@gmail.com

Today's notes on the Gospel: Mark 11:1-11: Jesus was approaching Jerusalem, knowingly going to his death. His entry to Jerusalem in the account of St Mark was to establish in the public mind his claim to messiahship. The mode of entry, seated upon a humble ass (not a militaristic steed) was in keeping with the biblical thought of a royal personage coming in peace. However, in his earthly poverty he even needed a borrowed animal to ride upon. The cries of greeting, with a royal carpet of garments, identified Jesus with the promised descendant of King David, the ruler of a kingdom which would last forever. But his kingdom very soon had to be rejected for God's plan of salvation to unfold. It is still rejected by the vast majority to this day. The Christ has died, the Christ has risen, the Christ will come again!

Confirmation Classes have begun and will continue on Monday 25 at 3.30pm at St John's Lutheran Church, Supper Room. For further information, please contact Pr Noel – Ph 0429 046 663. Pray for these young people.

Holy Week Bible Readings.

The last week of Jesus earthly ministry is very significant. Much time was spent teaching in the temple in Jerusalem. During this week take the time to read of this last week of Jesus earthly life. His teaching is very significant. This year is Liturgically the Year of Mark. So it is suggested you read Mark Chapters 11- 14. Read and reflect on Jesus teaching at this very important time.
