Today's notes on the Gospel: Luke 26:36b-48: Whenever God showed his presence to people in the Scriptures, they felt terror at the numinous experience (as did the shepherds at Bethlehem). The disciples show similar terror at Jesus' resurrection appearance recorded here by St Luke. No doubt guilty feelings would augment that reaction. However, Jesus neither castigates nor rejects them for their littleness of faith, but rather adapts to their limits by lovingly illustrating his physical fulfilment of the pre-crucifixion promises of rising from the dead. The word of God, upon which our relationship with God also exclusively hinges, required this process for the proof of its truth and effectiveness of God's declaration of forgiveness of sins.

Calling for pastoral carer

As we embark on bringing love to life at the LCA NZ synodical convention this year, you are invited to participate in this program of offering pastoral care to our sisters and brothers in Christ.

Being a pastoral carer is a rewarding role where you enter the world of another and hear their fears and concerns. In this way, you become the presence of Christ for another, the assurance that nothing separates them from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

Apply to become a pastoral carer. You'll receive access to training and a support network. Complete the online application form, download the Word document, or print the PDF for members within your congregation and worshipping community who might like to join us. Details at www.lca.org.au/pastoral-care
