Replenish Retreat - October 11-13 - Luther Heights Youth Camp, Coolum Beach

Notes on the Gospel Lesson: Mark 6:30-34,53-56: While Jesus and the disciples were in genuine need of seclusion both for respite and for personal training, yet the invasive needs of the crowds evoked a response of compassion to answer those needs. The miracles of Jesus are treated by the gospel accounts as an attestation to the genuineness of his Messiahship. St Mark shows here, however, that Jesus saw the most important need as teaching. We need to recognise that his compassion today can never be divorced from the teaching which his church carries out in his name.

A bible study series on the book of Ruth and how it points to Jesus, will be held at Kingaroy on Friday 26th July at 9.30am in the Supper Room. Pastor Lou will be leading this series. Morning tea will follow each weekly study. All Parish members and friends are welcome to attend.
