Pray This Week for the following :

- Give good harvests everywhere and protect the world from flood and fire, famine and disease.
- Support each person in their employment, and give them the confidence their daily work contributions to your work in the world.
- For Robert Knock (Canowindra) as he recovers from hip surgery and COVID19.

Anyone needing our prayers? Please send requests to kroy.luth@gmail.com

Notes on the Gospel Lesson: John 6:1-21: St John describes this miracle as a sign (v 14). It was commonly expected that when the Messiah came he would repeat God's miracle of the manna in the wilderness under the leadership of Moses. Hence the desire to make Jesus a king. The people saw him as a physical provider, which erroneous expectation Jesus answered by withdrawal. Indeed he was the Messiah, but of a spiritual kingdom to furnish different nourishment. His miracles showed him infinitely greater than the prophets (compare today's first reading). The sign of walking on the stormy water also demonstrates that the things over which only the Father has control also fall under Christ's own messianic province.

Please note the change of time for the bible study series on the book of Ruth and how it points to Jesus. It will be held at Kingaroy on Friday 2 August at 1.30pm in the Supper Room. Pastor Lou will be leading this series. Morning tea will follow each weekly study. All Parish members and friends welcome to attend.

Way Forward Face-to-Face Gatherings - A Chance to Engage

The Way Forward project is now in its final phase – Preparation and Prayer – which will run until General Synod in early October. Members are invited to prepare for General Synod by coming together in a setting of prayer and worship. In these face-to-face gatherings you will be able to ask questions about the Way Forward Framework and discuss it with others. Please register at district@qld.lca.org.au and identify which venue you wish to attend.

New Australian Lutheran church body established

On Monday 22 July, the General Church Board (GCB) and the College of Bishops (CoB) notified LCANZ pastors and congregational leaders that a new Lutheran church body called Lutheran Mission – Australia (LM-A) has been established. Pastor Matt Anker, who has been serving the LCANZ as Assistant to the Bishop – International Mission, has accepted a call from LM-A to be its inaugural pastor-president. Read more
