Mission & other Prayer Points for this week:

- Pray for families divided by ongoing COVID borders.
- Pray for churches and institutions in the call process.

St John's returns to worshipping at the church today, July 11th. Thank you to St John's School, especially to Karyn BP, for allowing us to use their relaxed space over the past 11 months. However, the situation remains fluid, and subject to change at short notice. Additionally, HC will be done differently at the church, in accordance with Covid guidelines.

Pray This Week for the following members:

- Dot Eisenmenger (Murgon) and family as they continue to grieve the loss of Robert.
- The family of Marlene Bates, long-time member of St John's, Kingaroy, who died recently at Orana and whose funeral was held last Tuesday.
- Greg Collin (Yarraman), Cheryl, and family, as Greg continues treatment for his cancer
- Janelle Dennion (Murgon), and Roy, as Janelle continues the management of severe pain at times

If there are any members needing our prayers, please email Belinda at kroy.luth@gmail.com

A Big Thank you to all who helped at the St John's Church working bee, last Thursday. Many tasks were undertaken – taking pews out to make additional room in accordance with COVID rules, cleaning, gardening, tidying up the porch, vestry and the hall. Many people spent a whole morning at the church. Thank you!

Craft Group Our church "Friendship Group" has decided to trial a craft group for anyone interested in the fellowship of doing craft with others or want company for a chat. You are most welcome. Please bring the craft of your choice. The plan is this will occur on a Thursday morning between 9am and 12 noon, starting July 15th at St John's Lutheran Hall, Youngman St, Kingaroy. Tea and Coffee will be available, please bring any food you may need. Joan Y.
