Mission & other Prayer Points for this week:

- The work with refugees throughout the world.
- The witness of our leaders in Lutheran Youth of Queensland.

Jordan will be away at a pastoral workshop at the seminary in Adelaide from Sunday the 16th of May to Friday the 21st of May. If you need, or know of someone else who might need pastoral care during this period, please contact your congregational leadership.

Pray This Week for the following members:

- Gary Campbell (youngest brother of Keith and Trevor) in hospital on life support after an accident at home.
- Greg & Sheryl Collin and family (Yarraman)
- Janelle, Roy and Mark Dennien (Murgon)
- Rob and Dot Eisenmenger (Murgon) as Rob continues treatment.

If there are any members needing our prayers, please email Belinda at kroy.luth@gmail.com

Parish Service for the Commissioning of Jordan for Word & Sacrament

Originally postponed from December last year, Bishop Paul Smith will be commissioning Jordan in his ministry among us on Sunday the 23rd of May, at 9.30 am, at St John's School in Kingaroy. There will be no services at Kumbia, Wondai, Murgon, Yarraman and Nanango, on the 23rd. Please bring a plate of morning tea to share, which our Kingaroy folk will serve, according to Covid health protocols.

This will be followed by a Parish Meeting at which the audited financial statements and the Final Budget for 2021 will be presented, and the AGM confirmed as per requirements of the constitution.

EMAIL AND MOBILE PHONE RECORDS: St John's Church Council is updating the register of members' records to include email address and mobile phone numbers. If you are unsure whether you have already provided these details, or if your details have changed, please see Chris Thamm to update your records. We also have a contact list of non-regular worshippers. If you can assist in any way with updating details on this list, we would appreciate your help.

The Barambah Ministers Association is beginning to plan the Murgon Christmas Carols in December, and are looking for expressions of interest to be involved in the planning committee. If you would like to be part of this process, please let Jordan know before June so that your name can be tabled at the next meeting.

Melinda Tankard Reist, renowned speaker on topics such as teenagers, sexuality, pornography & violence is returning to Kingaroy May 19-21. Pamphlets back of church.

Youth Group 23rd of May!!

4.00pm at Kingaroy Bowls Club. Cost: games are $5 for kids, $10 for adults. Pick up at church at 6.30pm Parents, siblings, grandparents are all welcome!!!! Bring money for Maccas/KFC/Subway for dinner at 5.30. We'll walk down the road for food, then meet and eat at the church. Come along and have some fun!! See Youth Facebook page for all the details!!!!

An opportunity to contribute to the purchase of Bibles for the Year 2 children at St John's Lutheran School will be available on Sunday 5th June and Sunday 12th June. Please consider your gift towards this wonderful mission opportunity. All the children love receiving their Bible. This book can be the beginning of a lifelong relationship between a child and God's word.
