Mission & other Prayer Points for this week:

- The people of India in the grip of the pandemic escalation.
- Families struggling to make ends meet.
- Growing relationships between different churches.

Pray This Week for the following members:

- Alan Frohloff's sister, Fay Beutel, is now out hospital recovering from an aneurism. The funeral for Fay and Terry's son, David, was held on Friday, with Pastor Fielke officiating.
- Greg & Sheryl Collin and family (Yarraman)
- Janelle, Roy and Mark Dennien (Murgon)
- Rob and Dot Eisenmenger (Murgon) as they both recover from the flu and continue Robs treatments.
- Wendy and Dave Ellenden (Murgon) as Wendy recovers from illness and safety as they prepare for an extended travelling holiday.

If there are any members needing our prayers, please email Belinda at kroy.luth@gmail.com

Parish Service for the Commissioning of Jordan for Word & Sacrament:

Originally postponed from December last year, Bishop Paul Smith will be commissioning Jordan in his ministry among us on Sunday the 23rd of May, at 9.30 am, at St John's School in Kingaroy. There will be no services at Kumbia, Wondai, Murgon, Yarraman and Nanango, on the 23rd. Please bring a plate of morning tea to share, which our Kingaroy folk will serve, according to Covid health protocols.

This will be followed by a Parish Meeting at which the audited financial statements and the Final Budget for 2021 will be presented, and the AGM confirmed as per requirements of the constitution.

COVID SIGN-IN CHANGE: As from 1 May 2021, all Queensland hospitality businesses must use the Check-In Qld app when signing in patrons to their premises. The decision has been made that St John's Congregation will register to use the app for people to sign in at church. We will then have a QR code for you to scan with your mobile phone instead of having to fill in your details on paper. If you don't own a mobile phone or aren't comfortable with downloading apps, we can take your details using another method. You can download the app at any time. If you have any questions, please talk to Keith Campbell or Chris Thamm.

EMAIL AND MOBILE PHONE RECORDS: St John's Church Council is updating the register of members' records to include email address and mobile phone numbers. If you are unsure whether you have already provided these details, or if your details have changed, please see Chris Thamm to update your records. We also have a contact list of non-regular worshippers. If you can assist in any way with updating details on this list, we would appreciate your help.

The Goomeri Pumpkin Festival is on the last weekend of May. We need volunteers for the Goomeri Pumpkin Festival setup, stall and stall finish / dismantle. We need someone who doesn't have health problems to setup and dismantle the stall and volunteers to attend the stall. This is a major fundraiser for chaplaincy in the local schools. If we can't find anyone to help, we will have to cancel the stall. For more information or responses contact Peter Allen on jal.46638@telstra.com
