NEWS FLASH!!!

Pastor Ken Schultz has accepted the call to shepherd God's flock here in the South Burnett. This news has been received amongst the congregations with much joy and thankfulness to God. Pastor Ken and wife Lyn, God willing, shall begin their ministry among us during the month of January 2027.

We pray for the members of the Oakey Parish as they now begin the process of working toward calling a pastor.

We also pray that the transition for Pastor Ken and Lyn as they look to conclude ministry projects in the Oakey Parish and that the move to the SBLP, is smooth and peaceful.

St John's Community Worship

Over the coming months, David Folker will be organising St John's Community Worship Services, where staff and students from St John's Lutheran School will lead Sunday worship at St John's Lutheran Church. These services will be a wonderful opportunity for school families to connect with our congregation as we participate in worship together. These services will also give our congregation insight into the worship life of students at St John's Lutheran School and an opportunity to "cheer students on"!

Thanks for making any guests (staff, students and families) feel welcome.

The next Community Worship is set down for 6th September, which is Father's Day.
