

Gather Place ~ History Hunt For Me™

Educational Program Synopsis

What Is It?

History Hunt For Me™ is a dynamic, 2-hour (per program module), interactive educational platform created by Gather Place Museum and supported by an America250PA Semi-quincentennial Grant. Designed to bring American history to life, this experience blends inquiry-based learning, multimedia resources, and historical interpretation to engage students and lifelong learners alike.

Participants work collaboratively to solve clue-based worksheets, scan QR codes to access digital content, interact with life-size cutouts of historic figures, and meet live interpreters portraying iconic changemakers.

Available for scheduling and set-up at your location or on-site at Gather Place Museum in Yardley, Bucks County, PA.

What's Included?

-  Life-size History Maker Cutouts of historic figures
-  Clue-Based Worksheets with QR Code-Linked Digital Lessons
-  Live "History Hunt Detectives" as facilitators
-  In-Person Interpreters in Historical Costume (based on each program module)

Academic Subjects Engaged

- Social Studies / History: U.S. foundational documents, abolition, suffrage, civil rights, cultural movements
- Reading & Literacy: Primary/secondary source analysis, comprehension, historical inquiry
- Civics & Government: Democratic institutions, voting rights, citizenship, public service
- Arts & Humanities: Cultural expression, literature, music, visual art, theatrical performance
- Technology & Media: Digital literacy, QR-based learning, research and web-based exploration

Program Modules (and which live interpreter(s) portraying iconic changemakers will be provided)

- Module 1: America's Foundation (1681–1865) – Susanna Warder or Hannah Penn
- Module 2: First Ladies: From Martha to Michelle (1788–2017) – Martha Washington or Michelle Obama
- Module 3: America's Abolitionists (1800s–1865) – Harriet Tubman, Lucretia Mott, or Frederick Douglass
- Module 4: Women's Suffrage Movement (1840–1920) – Lucretia Mott or Ida B. Wells-Barnett
- Module 5: The Harlem Renaissance (1920–1930) – Zora Neale Hurston or Langston Hughes
- Module 6: The Civil Rights Movement (1909–1970s) – Rosa Parks or Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

What Educators Are Saying

"This program was a powerful way for my students to engage with history. The worksheets and activities sparked deep discussions and helped them connect with key moments in American history in a meaningful way. Highly recommend!"

— George Schreuder, Social Studies Teacher, John Bartram High School

Book Your Module Today

Email: info@gatherplace.org | Phone: 215.595.2722 | Website: <https://gatherplace.org/america-250th-programs>