Catholic Women’s League Presents Recognition Awards: Last April two Awards of Recognition were meant to be presented by the CWL to two very deserving young people who have worked as Mentors for the children attending the Faith First Catechism classes. Because of the pandemic this presentation was done privately at the end of September. Elora Di Blasio, a student in the John Abbott Professional Theatre Program, and Nathaniel Insogna, a grade 11 student at Beaconsfield High School, have faithfully served our parish for many years. We applaud them and thank them.
