Syrian Family Update: Much has changed with our Syrian Refugee family since they first arrived in Canada on November 3, 2017. The grandmother, Jeanette is now 91 years old and is in good health. Her son Jousef , a retired mechanical engineer busies himself with volunteer work. The daughter, Jouhanna, has her own travel agency, working from home. Her husband, Adnan, is working for a bank in LaSalle. Their daughter, Sandra, will be starting CEGEP this fall. Recently they all became proud Canadian citizens. What a success story! Because of your generosity, we had extra funds. Over the past three summers we sent 14 refugee children to summer camps for various periods of time. The basic requirement was that they came from single parent families.
