ABOUT VERY GAY PAINT

Founded in 2020, LA natives Nic Scheppard and Jenson Titus are the creative minds behind Very Gay Paint.

Known for their contemporary approach to color and form, they've transformed residences across LA—including RuPaul's iconic dining room stripes.

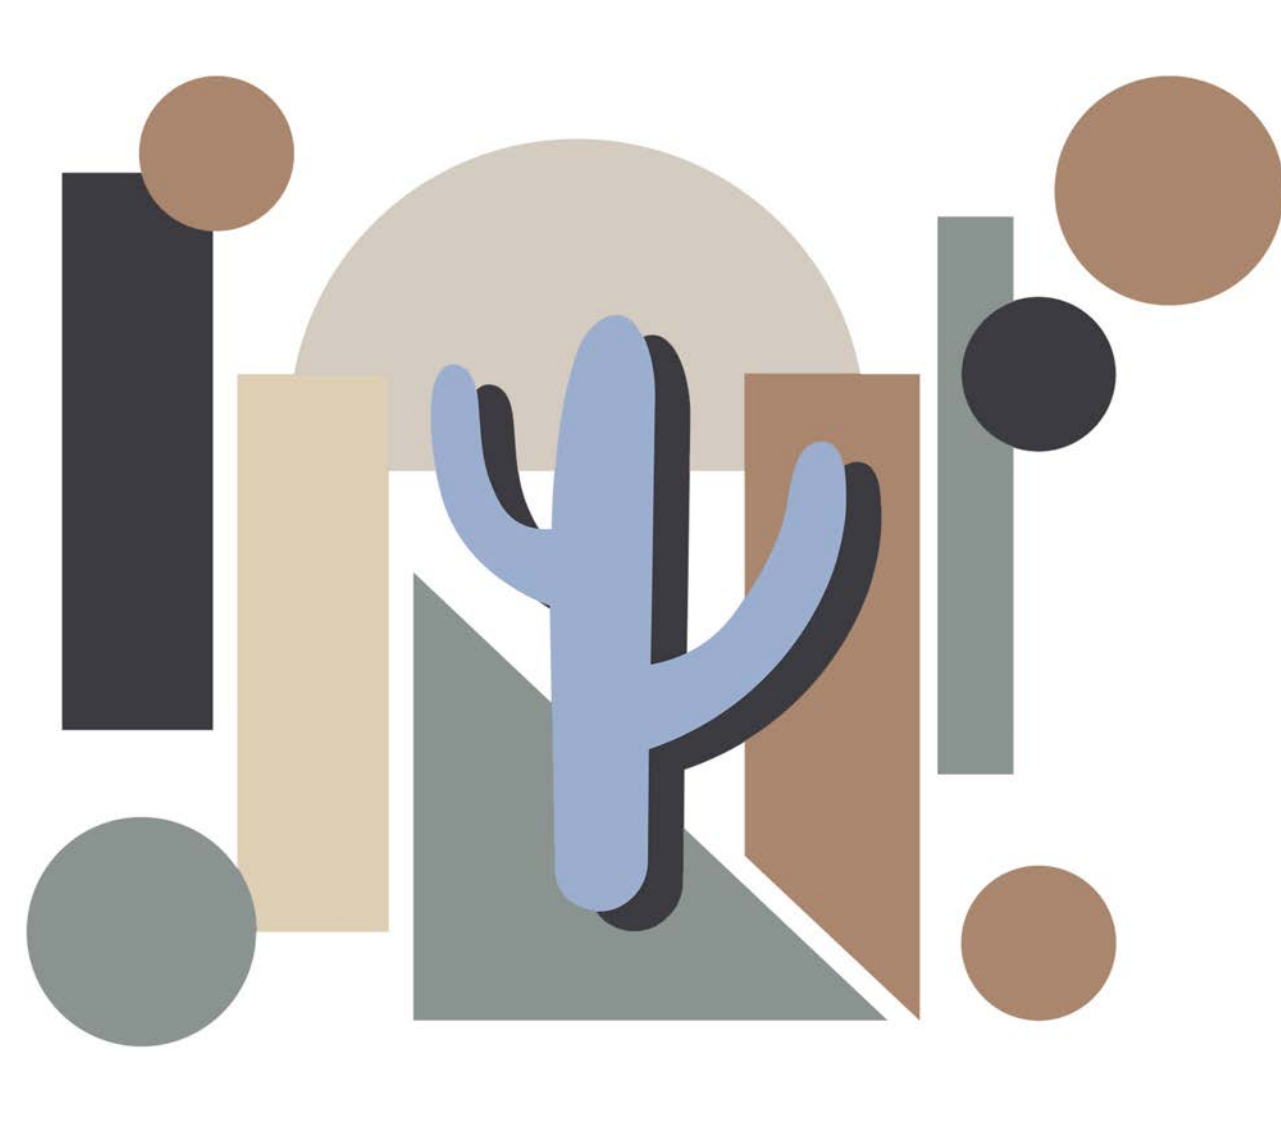

Their work is a reflection of humor, joy, and unapologetic self-expression.

Learn more about the designers and inspiration behind the collaboration in our latest blog post on PopTalk!

DECORATE IT YOURSELF® - CREATE YOUR OWN MASTERPIECE

Nic describes the artistic process as an intuitive play with shapes: "I play with and move shapes around as I create the concepts for mural installations until they feel just right to me."

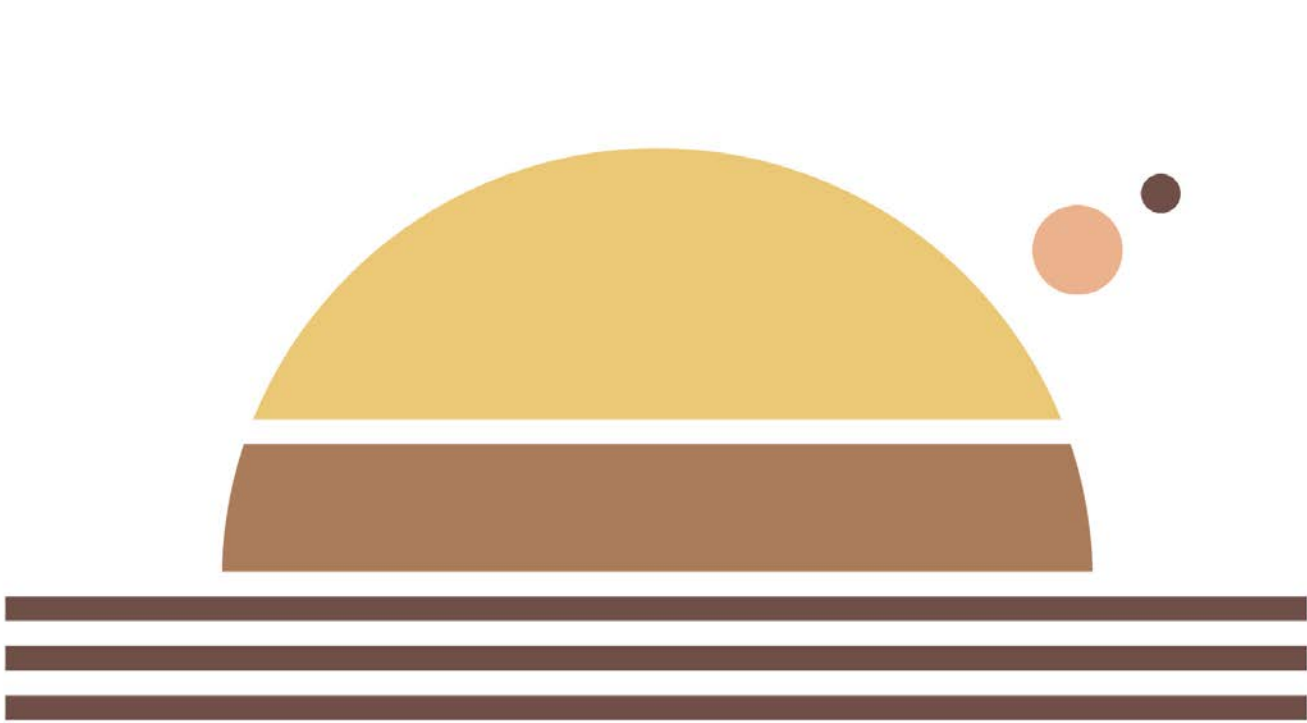

With the Very Gay Paint x WallPops collection, you get to do the same. Mix, match, and design your own murals and floor displays with the DIY home décor products you know and trust!
